43 other prizes offered, valued at more than $5,000: Local businesses giving away $15,000

Local businesses are getting together to give away more than $20,000 in prizes in the World-Spectator's 2019 Christmas Giveaway.

The main prize is $15,000 to reward one lucky shopper for shopping locally this Christmas season.

The winner will receive a chequebook and can spend their prize money at any or all of the participating businesses.

They can spend the prize money any way they want, purchasing anything from any of the businesses taking part in the promotion.

The draw will be made on Thursday, Dec. 19 and the winner will get the good news just before Christmas.

There are also 43 other prizes valued at more than $5,000 in total to be given away in the World-Spectator 2019 Christmas Giveaway.

Shoppers can enter at 47 locations in seven communities across the area.

This year there are participating businesses in Moosomin, Esterhazy, Rocanville, Virden, Whitewood, Redvers, and White Bear First Nation.

The 43 secondary prizes include:

- A Stay and Play Package from Bear Claw Casino at White Bear First Nation.
- A remote control car and gift package from Bumper to Bumper in Rocanville.
- An Elle quartz bracelet from Kassie's Jewelry in Moosomin.
- A food processor and utensils from Esterhazy Home Hardware.
- A selection of local honey from Longman Apiaries in Maryfield.
- A Bowflex Upper Cut from Flaman Group of Companies in Moosomin.
- A Pixie Mood bag-in-a-bag from Kari's Closet in Moosomin.
- A Smart Home package from The Wireless Age in Esterhazy.
- A Dakine travel bag and pencil case from McPhail Travel in Moosomin.
- A $400 gift certificate from Today's Furniture and Electronics in Redvers.
- A set of three lamps from Mullett's Home Hardware in Moosomin.

Kevin Weedmark and Kara Kinna with some of the prizes from the World-Spectator Prize Vault that will be won as part of the World-Spectator Christmas Giveaway, as well as the $15,000 grand prize. Turn to pages 12 and 13 for a full list of participating businesses and secondary prizes.

- A T-Fal Optigrill from Virden Home Hardware.
- Two $150 gift certificates from Cork and Bone in Moosomin.
- $150 in gift certificates from Tim Hortons in Moosomin and Virden.
- A $100 gift certificate from Zaylie Furniture in Moosomin.

And many more. Turn to pages 12-13 in this Christmas Gift Guide for a complete list of participating businesses and secondary prizes.

World-Spectator publisher Kevin Weedmark said he is proud of the local business community for stepping up and supporting the promotion.

"This promotion has always been about rewarding local shoppers for supporting the local businesses, and the fact that so many local retailers and other businesses support this promotion shows that they are working hard to serve their customers," he says.

"The first year we held the car draw, which the $15,000 draw evolved from, we had no idea if we could do it or not. We threw the idea out there to businesses in the area, and the response was overwhelming. In no time we had enough support to be able to offer a substantial prize," Weedmark said.

"The car draw was a success, but I think this promotion is even better. The grand prize winner each year receives a book of special cheques they can use at the participating businesses.

"That will ensure that the money the winner receives will stay in the local area. There are all sorts of other prizes as well. It's really a great way of rewarding people for shopping locally."

Shoppers can enter with a purchase at any participating business—there are 47 locations across the area in total where people can enter.

The winner can spend their $15,000 any way they want at participating businesses.

They may choose to spend it at several different businesses, or spend the whole prize on a large ticket item like a quad, furniture, flooring for the whole house, or a lavish trip.

"The possibilities are endless," says Weedmark.

"Our winners over the last couple of years have spread their winnings around, spending the prize money on everything from trips to a family dinner to clothing to a garage package to electronics to furniture to jewelry.

"It's great to hand out the $15,000 prize, and it's great to see our winners spend that prize at local businesses over the next few months and really enjoy it! It just proves that it pays to shop locally!"

Top reasons to shop locally

There are lots of reasons to shop locally this Christmas season and always! Here are just a few!

Local Economic Stimulus

When you purchase at a local business, more money is kept in the community because local businesses purchase from other local businesses, service providers and farms. Purchasing local helps grow other businesses as well as the local tax base.

Support for local groups

Local business owners donate to local charities, sports teams, fundraisers, recreation programs, service clubs, and all the things that make your community better!

Character and prosperity

The unique character of your local community is defined in large part by the businesses that are based there, and that plays a big factor in your overall satisfaction with where you live and the value of your home and property.

Jobs for your friends and neighbors

Most new jobs are created by small businesses. Small local businesses are the largest employers nationally. Plus the more jobs you have in your local community the better. Local businesses keep our communities vibrant and growing.

Great customer service

Customer service is simply better with local businesses. Have you ever tried to get a box store to hook up your TV to your set top box, to your speakers, customize your computer network, deliver an order of softener salt to your home or garage, or make alterations on the clothing you just bought? Local businesses often hire people with more specific product expertise for better customer service. You are also going to see these people around town and they are going to give you great service in part because they are your friends and neighbors.

Community investment

Local business owners invest in your community. Local businesses are owned by people who live in your community and are invested in the community's welfare and future. They have invested in their businesses, they pay property taxes that support your community, they employ your friends and neighbors, and they contribute to worthy local causes.

Sweet nothings.

Prairie Sunset: A Story of Change
By Dion Manastyrski

In the creation of this poignant, high-quality, fine-art book, Dion Manastyrski roamed the Canadian prairies, photographing old abandoned houses, barns, schools, and churches. He interviewed over 70 people who lived that past way of life, when the small family farm was at the heart of rural life on the prairies.

Also included are 50 historical photos and documents from government archives. The photos and their words are interlaced to tell a story that begins with the pioneer years and covers many aspects of their lives over the 150 years.

Makes a great gift!

SANTA DAY IN MOOSOMIN

There were more than 400 photos taken with Santa at Moosomin's Santa Day last year. Some kids were thrilled to meet the big red guy while others couldn't get off his lap soon enough!

Scenes from 2018 Moonlight Madness in Moosomin

Moonlight Madness in Moosomin brought lots of shoppers out in Moosomin last year. There was also a hay rack ride complete with Santa and Elves provided by Flamans, and Cooper the Borderland Co-op mascot was making the rounds handing out all kinds of coupons for local businesses, while members of the Moosomin 4H Multi Club rode around town on a hay ride singing carols.
