Christmas Greetings from local businesses and organizations, along with stories, letters and artwork from local school children

Pick me!

Hey Santa, I am looking for a job! So, Santa, I hear you have a job open, and I think that I am the best elf for it. I think that you should pick me because I am a hard worker, I am strong, and I am very creative.

First, I think that I am the best elf for the job because I am a hard worker. I was once in a competition to see who could do the most tasks and I did 250 tasks and I ended up winning the competition. I am a hard worker because I live on a farm. On a farm there is a lot of things to do, and I get them done by the end of each day.

Secondly, I think I am the best for it because I am strong. I am strong because every day when I do my chores on the farm, I have to feed the cows, so I have to haul bales by hand. I also work out every day and try to lift heavier every time and just yesterday I lifted 5,000 pounds.

Third I think I am the best elf for the job because I am creative. I create new toys every day that I think kids will enjoy playing with. I also create different kinds of toys like technology toys, wooden toys, and baby toys. I also make toys with different textures, colors, and uses.

Finally, I think I should DEFINITELY be the elf that gets picked. I think this because I am a hard worker, I am strong, and I am really creative. Santa I really hope that you pick me to be an elf in your workshop.

Christmas Day

One day a family set up a Christmas tree. First they had to go chop down a tree. Then they put the decorations on the tree. The family loved being with each other. The little girl named Bella woke up in the middle of the night and saw the Christmas gifts under the Christmas tree. Bella thought hopefully she got something good because she forgot to be on Santa's good list.

When the rest of the family woke up they opened their gifts, except for Bella. Bella said to her mom "I forgot to make sure I was on Santa's good list."

"You're always good, so don't worry." Mom said to Bella "you can open your gift."

Bella opened her gift and she got a saddle! Bella loved riding horses. Bella was so happy that she sent a letter to Santa saying thanks for the gift.

Ski-dooing with Santa

It was December 25, 6:30 and Tim went downstairs and saw Santa. Tim yelled, "Santa you brought me a skidoo." "Of course I did, you are a good boy," said Santa.

"Now hop on your skidoo and let's go for a ride." They went down in the ditch and hit a snow pile and flew in the air. Tim said "that was awesome." Santa said, "I know where there is lots of snow." So, they went where there was lots of snow.

Santa got stuck and Tim had to help him out. After they got unstuck, they went home for hot chocolate. They made it home and they went inside where Tim made hot chocolate. Suddenly Santa heard mom and dad wake up, so he hopped in the chimney, climbed on the roof and took off in his sleigh and flew home to the North Pole.

You Need a New Sleigh

Santa I'm so tired of pulling your big sled all the time. Our backs are getting sore. You should get a new sleigh because the sleigh is too heavy. Give the reindeer a break. Santa, I think you should get a new sleigh.

Santa, the reindeer are getting so tired of pulling that heavy sleigh. If you get a new sleigh it would be much less work. The new sleigh would be so much faster. You will get presents delivered quicker.

Let's give the reindeer a break this Christmas. A new sleigh would pretty much drive itself so the reindeer won't be overworked. You'll save money on food because the reindeer won't have to eat that much.

Santa, your sleigh looks old, broken and worn out. Your sled looks like its going to fall apart. Also the straps are ripped apart. A new sleigh would look so much better!

Santa I think you should get a new sleigh. You need a new sleigh because the reindeer are too tired, the old sleigh is too heavy and it's falling apart. Santa its time to buy a new high-tech automatic sleigh. Please!

Santa Should Get an Automatic Sleigh

Santa, you must get an automatic sleigh. I'm getting tired of pulling that big sleigh around; so are all my reindeer friends. Santa we are all sick of it...well mainly me. For goodness' sake Santa just get an automatic sleigh, then all our lives will be easier.

Santa won't you get an automatic sleigh? After Christmas, my back hurts like crazy because we must carry all those presents and Santa all over world! We go to China, Europe, Japan, Mexico, Canada and the United States. ALL OVER THE WORLD and we must do it all in one night in that heavy sleigh.

I think a new sleigh will be good because all you do is press a button and you're off. It will be way faster than taking all us reindeer with you on your travels. It just saves you lots of time...am I not right? Now do you think Santa will be convinced. No? Oh okay, I still have more. All the reindeer will be drinking hot cocoa while we are waiting for you to get back. Mrs. Claus will have some warm milk and cookies ready for you too at 6:00 am. The new sleigh will get you home so much faster!

Secondly, I don't like driving that big sleigh all in one night. It's hard on my back and I wish you could just get an automatic sleigh...that runs with a motor. We use lots of our energy because we need to keep up so we aren't ever late. Just get an automatic sleigh. It's on sale at the Co-op and its only $300,000.

Thirdly, trust me it will be worth it. It will be quicker than taking all us reindeer with you. All you need to do is just press one button and you're OFF. Although you will have to pay for gas...it will still be easier. You could even put the sleigh into auto drive, and you can sit back and relax and drink hot cocoa.

I hope you consider my opinion. My back won't hurt after Christmas, we won't have to fly all over the world delivering presents all in one night, and it will be way faster than taking all of us with you. I hope you consider it, Santa!

Covid Christmas

One Christmas night Santa was getting ready to deliver presents. He was getting the reindeer ready to go when he thought "Where's Rudolf?"

He went and looked in the back pens to find him but he wasn't there. He decided to call the neighbors to see if Rudolf was there. The neighbors told Santa that Rudolf broke into their house because they had a freshly baked pie. Santa got into his red truck and drove to the neighbors' to pick up Rudolf. When he got to the neighbors' house he forgot to grab the trailer, but he saw the family sitting around their tree opening Christmas Eve presents. Santa hurried home to get the trailer and got Rudolf. He then quickly got Rudolf ready to go. As soon as he got him ready and was good to go he didn't feel good. He went and sat on the couch.

He called Mrs. Claus and she asked "What's wrong?" Santa said, "I don't feel good so I am going to call off Christmas."

"No don't do that!" said Mrs. Claus.

Mrs. Claus told him she will get him a Covid test. He got the test done and they waited 15 minutes for them to get the results. The test results came back and were... POSITIVE! Mrs. Claus stayed with him for the night. When it was 3:00 am Santa said to Mrs. Claus, "Go, go."

"But I don't know how to fly the sleigh," she replied.

"I will teach you, you must go spread joy to people," said Santa.

"Well I have to go get ready," said Mrs. Claus.

"Well be fast," he replied. When she got home she told Santa about all the letters she answered and all the cookies she ate. Also all the presents and stockings she filled. Santa was so happy for her. They went to the cameras and watched everyone open all their presents with joy! Santa got up and started walking and said "I feel better now... even though I have Covid."

Santa Gets Stuck

Once upon a time there was a jolly man whose name was Santa Claus. He loved children, he loved presents and he loved cookies and cake. It was Christmas Eve and Santa was just wrapping one last present before he was going to leave. Santa had to leave a bit early because it takes a little while to get to each house. He had to go to 10,000 houses in just one night.

"It is time to go!" Mrs. Claus yelled.

So, Santa hopped on his sled and said to his reindeer, "Let's go!"

Once he was really high in the air he yelled, "Merry Christmas!"

It was 2:00 in the morning and Santa had just one last house to go to before he got to go back to the North Pole. He was excited for this house because it was his favorite house with all the yummy goodies that he loved and so much candy. So, he took a step to the chimney. Then he hopped in and because he was so skinny, he slid right down with the presents. Once he hit the bottom he jumped out of the chimney and looked at all the goodies on their coffee table. There were five cakes and three of them were chocolate and the other two were vanilla. There were also twenty chocolate chip cookies with eighty nice, fresh and warm brownies. Mmmmm, but that wasn't all. There were also sixty slices of rice crispies with a hundred gingerbread men that were nicely iced. And last but not least, two full jugs of milk that were just bought. So, Santa put all their presents under the tree very nicely. After that was done, he went over to the coffee table and looked at all the food, then he started to eat. He ate all the cakes. He ate all the cookies. He ate all the gingerbread men, the rice crispies, the brownies and he drank the two full jugs of milk. After he ate all the snacks, he was so fat that he couldn't even walk. Then he jumped into the chimney but instead of going up he was stuck!

"Oh no!" he quietly yelled. "I'm stuck in this chimney! What will I do now?"

Then he tried to quietly yell, "Reindeer!" But they didn't hear Santa. So, he yelled louder, "Reindeer!" But they still didn't hear Santa.

Then Santa heard a noise from on the stairs. It was a little girl.

She said to Santa quietly, "Hi, my name is Alexa and I am nine years old and are you Santa Claus?"

Santa replied, "Yes, I am." Then he asked, "What are you doing up Alexa?"

Alexa told Santa that she heard something, then she lit a candle and saw that Santa was stuck in the chimney.

Santa then asked, "Alexa, can you help me get out of this chimney?"

"Sure," she whispered. "What do you want me to do?"

"I don't know," replied Alexa.

"Wait I know!" said Alexa.

Then she grabbed the candle and started a fire in the fire-place.

Santa screamed, "What are you doing trying to burn me to death?" Then he yelled, "Why are you just standing there?"

The girl said quietly, "I was just helping you get out by starting the fire and making you sweat your way out."

Then Santa said, "Well it's working." He started to slip out of the chimney. "Now put out the fire before I burn my bottom."

"Ok," Alexa said as she was putting out the fire.

Once the fire was out Santa slipped out of the chimney and said in happy way, "Thanks."

Alexa said softly, "You're welcome Santa."

Then Santa walked out the door instead of using the chimney, then climbed up onto the roof, and as he was taking off he yelled, "Ho ho ho! Merry Christmas!"

The Wrong Santa

One year on the 24th of December, Liana, and Amber were getting ready for bed because the great old man named Santa was coming to give presents. They brushed their teeth and went to bed.

At 12:00 am Santa came but not to give presents, but to take. Santa went house to house taking gifts that the parents had put under the tree and he did that to half of houses in the world. Because he had forgotten to make presents.

He took gifts from half the people in the world and gave the gifts that he took to the other half. The half he took from was mad for the rest of their life. The other half did not know what happened that year.

The Best Elf for the Job

Hey Santa! I heard you were looking for a good elf! Well, I'm a good elf. I'm strong; I'm fast and I'm smart. I think you should pick me for the job Santa!

You should pick me because I'm good at doing hard stuff. I'm super-fast at wrapping presents. I can be finished wrapping 80 presents in 20 seconds. A long time ago I won a competition for wrapping presents. Here is the metal I won. Look Santa!

Hey Santa, I am a strong elf. I can lift the heaviest present ever from the workshop and take it to the sled with ease. I can also hold many gifts at one time. I am a super-strong elf.

Santa I'm a very smart elf. I can think of anything you can and maybe even more! I can strategize very easy. I am good at counting so I can make sure we have all the presents and I'm good at math, so with that I can figure out how many presents people need in their home.

I'm just saying you should pick me for the job, Santa. I am a fast elf. I am a super-strong elf, and I am so smart! Santa, I think you should pick me for the job; just saying!

Cybertron Christmas

There once was a man named Optimus Prime. Optimus Prime was the leader of the Autobots. He found a costume that looked like Santa. The Autobots were having a Christmas party so the costume was going to be great.

The party was being held at the Central Command Center. Optimus Prime ordered all the Botts to attend the party. One of the Botts' name was Santa. The outer shell of the Botts was made of metal. The Botts needed energon to live. While at the party there was a rumor that Ratchet a Decepticon, was planning on blowing up the Arc in the engine room. There were supposed to be two Botts guarding the room.

There was a loud sound and Optimus Prime ran to the engine room and found one Bott dead on the ground. He found wires, strings and guns that Ratchet had set up. Ratchet didn't notice Optimus Prime standing there and he set off the guns and BOOM! At that time Optimus Prime transformed into a semi that saved his life. Then Optimus Prime walked back into the party. Iron Hide, who is a guardian of Optimus Prime, got a new drill, Optimus Prime got an energy blaster and Bumblebee got a new stinger. After all the trouble with Ratchet they ejected him from the Arc and he went inside a pod. The rest of them continued on partying and had a great time.

Santa Pick Me

Dear Santa,
Hey Santa, please hire me! I'm sneaky, kind and I'm a terrific gift wrapper. I really need this job, Santa. I can't make money and now I can't live anywhere, and I love making toys and wrapping them. I would love to make sure which kids are being naughty or nice. I think I'm the best elf ever in the world.

First off, I'm super sneaky. One day I snuck behind someone and gave them a new phone without them seeing me. Another reason I'm sneaky is I decorated a person's house when they were sleeping, and they never woke up.

I'm so kind. I'm so kind that I gave a homeless man a house. Another reason I'm so kind is that I saved a spider's life without harming it. I'm truly a wonderful elf!

I'm also a terrific gift wrapper. I once wrapped a giant present in half a second. Another reason I'm a good gift wrapper is I won a wrapping contest with wrapping 100,000,000 presents in only 30 seconds.

I think I'm the best elf in the world. I'm an amazing gift wrapper, I am kind and I am sneaky. Santa, please hire me. I also make the best cookies.

P.S. I can also feed the reindeer.

Letter to Children Around the World

Dear children of the world,
Do you know how tiring it is to eat the same cookies and milk all the time? I don't like the same cookies and milk all the time. I don't like eating the same thing ever year, every Christmas and would like to try new things.

It is important to try new things in your life. Throughout my life as Santa, I have tried new things like riding horses and reindeer, going to different places for supper and even having Mrs. Claus cook different meals at home. When I try new things, I feel good.

Secondly, I would like to switch up the snack to meat and I would like to drink water with my meat. I choose meat because meat is good for you. It is also high in protein, and it gives you lot of energy. I choose water because it is good for you and keeps you hydrated.

Third, I am asking not to have them anymore because they have wheat and gluten in them and I'm gluten intolerant. I don't eat them often other than one night at Christmas. When I do eat them, I feel really bad because my body doesn't process gluten well. When I eat all the Christmas cookies Mrs. Santa Claus doesn't like me because I'm really sick and cranky.

Lastly, in my opinion I don't think milk and cookies are the best snack for me. They aren't the option for me as some of them have gluten in them which make me feel sick and cranky. The snack I am choosing is meat and water as it is important to stay strong and hydrated. I think it's important to try new things because you will like it and you will feel better when you do.

SANTA SAVIOR

Once upon a . . . NO this is not that kind of story, this is an amber alert, and I am Logan Schmidt reporting from CBC news.

Santa has lost his toy sack in Liberty Island New York, home to the statue of liberty.

Along with his sack, his reindeer lay here, but one little oopsie is that it is on STATUE OF LIBERTY and the reindeer lost their power due to a huge fear of heights so they cannot get down you see.

Santa can now not finish delivering presents to New York.

Meanwhile on the statue of liberty, Prancer looked at Vixen and announced, "how are we supposed to get down now because all of you guys are too scared."

Vixen did not take that very well. "I am braver than you are. Anyways, Santa's probably coming for us right now."

Meanwhile back at the north pole Santa was getting ready to leave, walked over to the sleigh, but it was not there.

He looked for it forever.

He finally gave up and said to Mrs. Claus "forget this, they took off with the sleigh and probably will not come back."

When suddenly the TV turned on. From CBC news Logan Schmidt was broadcasting live in New York.

"I am here at the bottom of the statue of liberty New York where famous Santa's reindeer stand on top of the statue of liberty.

"We have just got news that they are scared and can not get down, please Santa wherever you are save them."

"I have to save them," said Santa to Mrs. Claus.

With out a doubt he was gone.

He took his back up reindeer, Deqavious, Tyrone, Decorous, Tyrell, Deontay and Trey.

Without a word they were gone.

They flew through furious gusts of wind and snowstorms. They also stopped lots to use the bathroom.

They finally got there but they did not come up with a way to get them down.

10 minutes later they decided on a plan. They were going to jump off the statue of liberty into the WATER.

It took some convincing to get them to jump but they did it anyway. Until there was one reindeer left, Comet, he refused to come down.

Meanwhile on the ground Deqavious explained to Santa "I am going up there and getting him down."

He climbed up there, sneaked behind Comet and pushed him into the water. Comet climbed out of the water and screamed "I HATE WATER."

But they ended up finishing all the houses and everybody got their presents.

That's when I woke up and opened my presents.

It was a dream!

Saving Christmas

Hi! I'm Madi and this is the story of a lifetime. "Good morning mom" I said. "Good morning mom" but still no reply, so I checked the kitchen and to my surprise no one was there. When I checked the living room I noticed something very strange, all of the Christmas decorations were turning black and evaporating. The Christmas spirit is in trouble I decided . . . so I went for a walk to see if I could find mom. I couldn't find mom and the only people I saw were Kenzie and Taylor.

I asked them if they had seen anybody else. "Ya! Your mom came to my mom's house," said Taylor. "OK" I replied, "But did you guys see anything strange about Christmas?" Ya! The Christmas tree was black! They answered. "I think the Christmas spirit is in trouble, big trouble" I replied. "We have to do something!"

So, we started to put pieces together. Kenzie checked the internet. "I don't think it hit anywhere else" Kenzie said, so if it only hit here! MIKE. Mike is a kid who went to school with us, he is super smart and is an inventor. He hates Christmas. So, the three of us ran to Mike's house.

Mike was not home so we snuck inside. When we went into Mike's room, we saw a sealed jar inside a clear safe, inside was the Christmas spirit. "We have to get it somehow," said Taylor. "Since I used to be Mike's best friend, I knew his passwords were always 17862." I said "Let's try it." Kenzie replied "It worked!"

So we smashed the bottle. The Christmas spirit was saved. Remember, it's never too late to save Christmas!

Why Raisins should NOT be in Christmas Baking

It makes it gross and it's chewy.

And if the baking is soft or crunchy and then you get a raisin, a chewy, old, dry raisin—EWWW! Especially when you don't know when there's raisins and you eat it.

Or the baking looks delicious..BUT there's raisins.

Some people ruin things by putting raisins in them.

Christmas Trouble

Hey children out there! I am writing this because every night I am gaining extra pounds. I need a new snack. Every night I feel like I am going to explode from eating too many cookies. It's not healthy for my body and I could die. There could be no Christmas if I don't start eating healthy. I need a new snack, boys and girls.

First things first, children every night I feel like I am going to explode. I need a new snack! I feel like I am going to explode because I am not getting a decent snack every night. The next day I have to eat like 20,000 carrots. We are running out of food for the reindeer.

Secondly, it is not healthy or safe to only eat cookies in one night. I need a new snack! If you leave carrots out for the reindeer, don't think the reindeer ate them because surprise, surprise, I ate them. I hate being fat and if you keep leaving out this snack, I will keep gaining weight. You don't want Santa to be unhappy. I hate being fat because every night I have to see myself on billboards. I look so unhealthy.

Lastly if something bad happens to me and I'm not healthy enough to deliver presents, there will be no Christmas! I need a new snack! There would be no Christmas because who would deliver the presents on Christmas Eve? No one; that's who.

I am telling you kids I need a new healthy snack! I need a new snack because every night I feel like I am going to explode, it's not healthy for my body and if I'm not healthy there could be no Christmas. Please children change my snack. Please. P.S. I want vegetables - they are so tasty!

Brylee

It all started on December 15, 2013 when my mom went into fake labor. We rushed to the Brandon hospital. My grandparents met us there to pick me and my sister up from the hospital so we could go to their house. My mom and dad stayed at the hospital until December 20, 2013.

When we got the call, our little sister was born. Her name was Brylee Louise Shipp. We went to the hospital to go see her. We took Brylee home and my dad came, but mom had to stay but was back in a couple of days. That was when our Christmas tradition started. Now every year we go to Brandon for Christmas.

THE END.

Christmas Mayhem

One day Santa had to fix the roof because it was broken. So he had to get a ladder from his workshop. After 20 minutes of looking he finally found the ladder he was looking for and started working on the roof. He touched an icy spot on the ladder and fell. He broke his leg and couldn't fly his sleigh. He thought Christmas was ruined, but just then an elf came up to him and said "I can fly your sleigh with the other elves."

Santa agreed and let them. The elves left and began delivering. When they got back Santa asked "Well how'd you do?"

All the elves shouted "Awesome!" Santa chuckled and his leg got better in time. "See you next Christmas!" said Santa

Three years later, Santa was flying his sleigh, and was entering Canada. He was happy until the presents started falling. Luckily it was only three little presents so he caught them. So he went to a little boy's house named Jamie. He believed a lot in Santa, so he got a lot of good presents.

That night Jamie couldn't sleep so he went to get a glass of water. Just when Santa entered the house, he saw Jamie and panicked. So he confronted Jamie and made sure he wasn't sleeping. He tapped Jamie on the shoulder and he screamed until he noticed it was Santa.

Santa said "Shh, you have to be quiet!" "Ok, sorry," Jamie whispered.

So Santa walked out of the house and hopped on to his sleigh. Jamie asked "Where are you going?"

Santa answered "Well it's Christmas Eve, I have to go, Jamie."

So Santa hollered for the reindeer to wake up and in a jiff he was in the sky and shouted "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!"

Then he disappeared into the night sky. The next morning Jamie woke up and saw presents under the tree.

Jamie said "He really did come!"

Dear Children of the World

Have you seen me lately? Just look at me! You kids are making me fat! Every dang year I have the same old cookies and milk. I'm sick and tired of them (literally)! So, before I scream my head off or get too fat, please, please, please change my menu!! Three reasons why you should change the dumb cookies and milk: Reason 1. Look at the pictures! Look at the books! I'm too fat!! Reason 2. I'm getting terrified of that dumb stupid snack! Reason 3. They're just too unhealthy! Please change the menu cause it's horrible!! (PS- And change it to some granola bars)!!

First, I'm too fat! Just look at me! I don't feel good thanks to you mean kids always feeding me cookies and milk! Once when I was fixing my sleigh for the reindeer, I heard a cry for help. I got up and rushed to the scene of crime. By the time I got there I was huffing and puffing, and when I saw what was wrong, I was so mad! The problem was that the keys to the workshop had fallen into a tight space! I can't crawl in to get them! I have to sleep on the floor every night at bedtime. You know why? It's because I'm so fat that I push Mrs. Claus off our bed and then she makes me go to sleep on the living room couch! I just roll off the couch and sleep on the floor instead!!

Next, I'm so scared and terrified of the cookies and milk!! One year I was just beginning my trip around the world and when I stopped at the first house and started putting down presents, I froze in fear and almost cried. You know why? It was because I saw some cookies and milk just sitting there staring back at me!! One night before Christmas Eve, I was getting on my Rudolph pajamas. (Yes, Rudolph pajamas!) Anyway, I hopped into bed and then had to go to the living room to sleep and when I was snug on the floor and was asleep, I had a nightmare! And do you know what it was about? Stupid cookies and milk and monsters!!

Lastly, cookies and milk are very unhealthy!! I was in a race once against the elves. I thought I was going to win because I was way bigger, and I had longer legs. But guess what? After five minutes into the race, I was huffing and puffing and I could barely breathe!! I must take so many pills and meds I should get a medal! (And that's not a compliment)!! I must see a doctor every week so I don't have a heart attack!! You kids should be sorry!! And thanks to you kids, I can't fit through my own doorway!!

So please follow this note and change my horrible menu! (And remember, change it to granola bars)!! So, if you put cookies and milk out for me again, please remember what my reasons are and what I must deal with. I'm too fat, I'm scared of that stupid snack, and they're just too unhealthy!!

So, get rid of that snack or guess what? News Flash!! I'll go on strike!!

Sincerely, Fed Up Santa Claus

Christmas without Snow

I like winter but the winters when it is super cold and there is no snow I hate because what's even the point of the cold outside if there is no snow. Like what do I do, play in the grass when it's -25? I also hate cold winds during winter. I hate weather like this because it ruins the Christmas spirit and it seems like it's not even winter when there's no snow.

I really like Christmas and winter when there is a lot of snow because when you wake up on Christmas morning and you look outside and there's three feet of snow, it's just a perfect thing to start your day. Why? Because when there is a lot of nice, fluffy snow you can do lots of stuff like go sledding, make big snow forts with your friends, or go skidooning. You can do lots of stuff, but mostly it just brings the Christmas spirit when it actually feels like winter.

I did a poll of who likes snow on Christmas and who doesn't and of 15 people only two people don't like snow on Christmas and 13 like snow on Christmas. So from my poll it's obvious that the majority of people like snow on Christmas.

The Reindeer

The reindeer flew to the town but one reindeer LOST ITS MAGIC! It caused all the reindeer to CRASH. Santa did not know what to do. It was getting early, what was Santa going to do?

Meanwhile, in town, the kids woke up, the kids looked out their windows and saw Santa. So the kids ran outside. Santa said, "PLEASE HELP ME." So the kids helped Santa get the reindeer up hoping to restore its magic. Santa and the kids lifted the reindeer but, the reindeer was too heavy. Next, they rubbed the reindeer's hoof. Yeah, it restored one hoof. Next, they tickled the reindeer, it restored another hoof. Soon Santa's reindeer would be flying again. They needed two more hooves to be restored. So, the kids jumped over the reindeer and it restored another hoof. And finally, the kids sang a Christmas song and it restored the LAST HOOF. The reindeer got up. The kids and Santa were happy. Santa wanted to thank the kids by giving them extra gifts. Then Santa got back in his sled and finished his Christmas job. Merry Christmas to all.

One Happy Christmas

We begin in the North Pole in a place most of you know as 'Santa's Workshop.' It is a large spacious building with lots of rooms (such as the room just for milk and cookies). How many times Tasha had read these words. Tasha is a girl of 11 with a soft loving face and jet black hair. She is covered in filth and wears bits of rags sewed together. She was reading off a piece of paper she had found in a dumpster so many years ago. If you haven't figured it out yet, Tasha is homeless.

"Let's get going Minnie," said Tasha. She was talking to a small furry husky. Tasha had found the poor dog two years ago in a box in an alley but now she was hers. Tasha picked up a fairly large box of matches and started walking with Minnie by her side. As Tasha walked she went over the story of the North Pole in her head. Tasha had read that story every day since she was six, wishing she could have a perfect Christmas with a family and Santa. Tasha stopped walking when she got to Main Street and then suddenly started yelling.

"Matches for sale! Get your matches here for $2!" Minnie was now going around attracting people to Tasha. Minnie and Tasha did this all day and in the end they made $22 and Tasha was thrilled. She hurried in to the nearest grocery store and bought dog treats and a fruitcake. Then she left the store and started running with Minnie at her heels. In about five minutes Tasha and Minnie were at the public hospital. They speed walked into the hospital and went to room A28. Inside was an elderly lady with a soft loving face and jet black hair with grey streaks in it.

"Hi Grandma!" said Tasha. "Hello sweetheart, and hello to you to Minnie," answered her Grandmother. "I brought you a fruitcake!" exclaimed Tasha. "Well then come up here and we will share it," replied her Grandmother. So Tasha and Minnie climbed up on the hospital bed with the fruitcake and dog treats and started snacking. As they snuck you might like to know why Tasha's grandmother is in the hospital. You see when Tasha turned five her Grandmother was diagnosed with cancer and she has been in the hospital ever since. That's why Tasha lives on the streets and not with her Grandmother.

"I have an idea," said Tasha after an hour or so. Tasha took a piece of paper and a pencil from her Grandmother's side table and drew a Christmas tree.

"What's that for?" asked her Grandmother puzzled. "I thought if we had a Christmas tree Santa would come," replied Tasha. "Well that's nice dear, would you like to stay the night?" "Yes please!"

The next morning Tasha and Minnie woke up to presents all around the Christmas tree drawing. "Santa came! Santa came! Get up Grandma! Get up!" yelled Tasha. Her grandmother never moved.

"Grandma," said Tasha with a quiver in her voice. Tasha shook her Grandmother all over hoping this was not really happening. Tasha did not want to admit it but her Grandmother was dead. Tasha started crying but about an hour later she found something. Her last moments with her Grandmother were the best moments of her life. She had finally got what she had always wanted, a Christmas with a loving family. Even though her Grandmother had died, she smiled a bit. She had finally had one happy Christmas.

FROM THE AUTHOR: I just want to say to whoever reads this that make sure you appreciate who you have because you never know when you're going to lose them.

The Best Elf for The Job

Hey Santa! Down here! Hi, my name is Jingle-Toes. I think I'm the best elf here. You should hire me because I'm so good at wrapping and I'm the most creative with making toys and I'm the BEST at baking. I'm the best elf here because no other elf is like me.

First, I'm the best wrapper because I can wrap 35 presents in under 30 seconds. One reason why I'm so good at wrapping is my fast hands. I know I have fast hands because an elf timed me for one minute, and I wrapped 25 gifts and that was when I was two years old. Another reason why I'm so good at wrapping is I'm very organized. My workspace is so clean and I know where everything is unlike some elves (yes, I'm talking about Samuel).

Secondly, I'm the best at making toys. I've won three contests. In the first contest I made a bear driving a train on a semi and there was a fox that danced on the train's roof. There is a family of elephants in the second contest. I made a car with a bird driving and a dancing bear on the roof. In the third contest I made a panda driving a semi on a dinosaur. I'm such a creative elf!

Finally, I'm the BEST at baking! When Mrs. Clause is sick, I can make you cookies and cake. I can bake you anything you want. I've won two baking contests! I made 15 cakes and 12 cookies and I also made fruit cake, chocolate chip cookies and many more flavors. In one contest, I made 20 cakes and 15 cookies. I made an Oreo ice cream cake and M&M chocolate chip cookies. Yum!

I'm a one of a kind elf. I'm a good wrapper, I am the most creative with making toys and I'm the BEST baker. Hey Santa down here! Were you even listening?

There Is Magic In The Snow

It was the year when it was hard but great. So I woke up like always and I couldn't wait for Christmas. It was in three days so I was being very good and I went outside to do my chores. But I like to look at the weather and I noticed that there was going to be a blizzard. So I dressed up warm to go do my chores.
When I stepped outside it just started to snow. I went to go feed the cows and pigs, I forgot the chickens and the dogs and finished the chores so now I could go back to the house. I couldn't see my house, the blizzard was so strong! I was getting scared, then I turned around and the barn I couldn't see it. There was a little cave so I went inside. I was in there for a long time, I was getting really scared, I was so cold I almost passed out. Then an elf came and brought me to the North Pole. When I woke up I was in the hospital and my bed was very small. There was hot chocolate and I drank it in like two seconds. Then I hopped out of my bed and opened the door. The doctors were elves. I wondered if I could find Santa. That would be so cool. I put on my winter jacket and mittens and I ran out the door to go find Santa.

There were a lot of toy stores. It was like a city. Whoever said it was a village was wrong. There it was, Santa's workshop, it was huge. Then I went inside and the first thing I saw were shelves and shelves of just letters. It was amazing, there was all kinds of stuff and there he was, the guy in the big red suit, "It's you, it's you, really you!" I shouted. "You awake, how are you feeling now?" said Santa all jolly. "I'm pretty good, can I go and look at all the toy stores please Santa?" asked Jack. "I don't think so Jack, your parents are going to be worried sick by now so maybe just a few okay because I don't want anything bad to happen to you," said Santa.
"That's fine, can we go to the Lego store please?" I asked.
"That's it, okay now let's go" replied Santa.
"That was probably the best time of my life!" said Jack.
"Mine too but now you have to go home now Jack, and if I ever need a helper I know who to call," said Santa.

"Thanks Santa," Jack replied.
"See you in three days. Hot Shot take him home" said Santa.
"I will Santa, see you in a bit, by," replied Jack
"Wow a great kid, I know just what to give him, Lego, lots of Lego" thought Santa.

I'm The Best Tree In The World

Pick me! Pick me! I'm the best tree in the lot! I'm not crooked. I have the best spot for the big star on top of me. The last thing is I smell good. I'm the best tree in the world.

Pick me! Pick me! I'm not crooked. I'm not crooked and that's good because ornaments won't fall off me and I won't fall over. I'm not crooked and that's good because if I fall, the gifts will get squashed. I'm not crooked and that's good because the big star won't fall and break.

Pick me! Pick me! I have the best spot for the big star on top of me. I have the best spot for the big star on top of me and that's good because the star won't fall and break. I have the best spot for the big star and that's good because if the star falls it can break open a gift and break what's inside.

Pick me! Pick me! I smell really good. I have the best smell and that's good because you could smell me all over your house, even in your basement. I have the best smell and that's good because people will want to stay and visit longer because it smells so good.

I think I'm the best tree on the lot. Pick me! Pick me! I am not crooked, and I have the best spot for the big star on top of me and I smell really good.

(Now that I am in the back of a truck, I can look around instead of looking at all the other trees all day. The truck has stopped and they took me out and said that I smell so good and they put me in their living room and decorated my branches.)

I'm The Best Tree!!!

Family, family! Please pick me! I'm as tall as a 10 storey building. I can hold 1,000 ornaments and 100,000 lights (500 boxes). I also smell so nice that some people use me as car or truck freshener. I am the nicest green tree on the lot! Everybody wants to pick me even though I am quite expensive $$

First, I'm the nicest smelling tree in the world. I smell so nice that some people sneak in and steal some of my needles as car or truck fresheners. I smell so nice! Once I was the town Christmas tree and everybody came to smell me; that's how good I smell!

Second I am the tallest tree in town. I am so tall that the local firemen use me as fire poles to get to their fire trucks. I am the tallest tree in town because I have about 10 tree houses in me.

I am the greenest tree in the country. I am so green that some people use me as grass if they don't have grass. I am so green that travelers think that I am a stand-alone forest

I'm the tree for you! I'm the best tree on the lot. Everybody wants to pick me because I'm the best tree. I'm so big that I can hold 1,000 ornaments and 500 strings of lights! Family, family! Please pick me even though I am so expensive.

The Almost Christmas Fail

It all starts at the North Pole. The elves were busy preparing all the presents: they were wrapping them and putting ribbons and bows on the presents. Mrs. Claus was making some delicious oatmeal cookies for Santa and the elves so they didn't get hungry during the ride to deliver the presents. But when Mrs. Claus thought of presents, she thought of something else too and do you know what she thought of, she thought of S-S-S-S-SANTA, Mrs. Claus panicked.

She cried, with a soft voice "Where's Santa?" The elves stopped what they were doing and looked at Mrs. Claus like she was dumb.

So Mrs. Claus said, "It's not a joke! Where is he?" The elves stopped for a second and said, "Ummmm... What if he is still sleeping?"

Mrs. Claus yelled as loud as she could and said, "Santa!" but he was still sound asleep like a little baby.

Frank the elf went to Santa's room and tugged on his beard. Santa woke up.

Frank told Santa, "You know, it's Christmas Eve, right?"

"Oh ya. I know that it's Christmas Eve. I would never forget about Christmas Eve! That's the most important time of the year!" laughed Santa.

But then Santa looked at the clock and it was eight o'clock. Santa immediately jumped out of bed and got his fuzzy red suit on but he put both of his legs in one pant leg. After he got all dressed in his suit he went outside and was looking for the reindeer, but the reindeer weren't in their stalls. Santa panicked but then he heard something in the trees. He turned around and saw a bright red circle in the trees and it was Rudolph and the other reindeer. Santa was so glad to see the reindeer! Santa went into the workshop to give Mrs. Claus a big hug before he went to deliver the presents to all the children in the world. Santa would always miss Mrs. Claus when he went to deliver the presents.

"I definitely won't miss Frank," said Santa.

But then it was almost time to go. Mrs. Claus was so sad when Santa left! But it now became time for Santa to go. Santa hopped in his sleigh! And with a loud voice Santa yelled, "HOHOHO!"

With a little magic from his reindeer, he was up, up and away in no time! After he delivered presents to all the girls and boys, Santa arrived back at the North Pole and gave all the elves presents except for Frank! All the elves and Mrs. Claus got wonderful presents but Frank got coal. When everyone woke up, they ran to their stockings to grab their presents. They were so happy! Except for Frank—he was so mad because he got coal in his stocking. Mrs. Claus was so happy with her present. But then they brought out a present for Santa. Santa opened his present and it was a glorious picture of him.

Santa said, "Thank you so much!"

Coal For Everybody

Ashtyn woke up on Christmas morning. She opened her presents and they were all coal! She asked her mom, "Why are all my presents coal?" Her mom had no answer. She decided to ask Amelia.

She said, "Nobody is getting presents this year. It's all coal." Ashtyn needed to stop that! She got out her flying truck and decided to go to the North Pole. So she drove to the North Pole. When she got there, she saw a big house. It was the Present Factory! Ashtyn went inside of it but it was full of coal! She quickly found where all the coal was coming from. She fixed it as fast as possible and took all the coal home. She then realized that it was Amelia's fault because she was at the Present Factory when she sent the video.

So Ashtyn locked Amelia in a bathroom and Christmas was saved forever!

Joy is...

- opening presents on Christmas Day.
- riding my horse in the winter because it doesn't hurt when I fall.
- watching a Christmas movie with my family with hot cocoa.
- spending time together with my family and talking.
- playing with my friend so that I'm not bored.
- earning money. I don't like doing the dishes or the laundry but I like earning money!
- going sledding down the hill. It's slippery, so it's fun to slide!

The Christmas Gloves

It all started when I was walking on the street to buy a gift for my dad. I was freezing. It was -10 outside and I forgot my gloves at home.

But, 5 minutes later, I saw some nice pairs of gloves. They were so nice, all made of rabbit skin. So, I decided to buy them, wear them home and then give them as a gift to my dad!

1 week later

December 25 morning was here. Today was the day to give and receive some gifts. But, then I got a flashback—the salesman was my dad! And the dog ate all of the gifts. This had to be a nightmare!

Miraculously, I woke up. I was back to reality! The gloves were under the tree, and the best thing about it was that my dad loves the gloves.

Dear Santa,

Santa, pick me! Santa, over here! Pick me! Pick me! Hey Santa, over here! I'm the best elf for the job! I'm fast, sneaky, and best at wrapping presents. Santa, you should pick me because I'm the best elf for the job.

First, Santa I am the fastest elf in the north pole. I am the fastest elf because I can carry forty presents in one minute. Another reason why I'm the fastest elf is because I can go through all the mail in twenty minutes so you can see all the letters in time for Christmas.

Second, Santa I'm the sneakiest elf in the North Pole. I'm the sneakiest elf because I can get past all the children and dogs and the cats. Another reason why I'm the sneakiest elf is because I can get past the highest security systems without any alarms going off.

Thirdly, Santa, I am the best gift wrapper. I'm the best gift wrapper because one day there was a gift wrapping contest and I won. I am the best gift wrapper because my family tested us for being the best gift wrapper and I won.

Santa I think I am the best elf out there. I'm the best at wrapping presents, I'm the fastest elf, and I am the sneakiest elf. Santa I'm the best elf for you!

Santa the Harley Rider

Once upon a time Santa didn't always ride in a sleigh. One Christmas he rode a motorcycle that could fly. He rode it through the towns and all over the world. But the problem was back then they only had a few elves so they would have to work twice as hard.

However, this Christmas they only had enough toys for half the world. They decided to open another workshop. They had ten elves in each workshop. Then Santa got an idea. He would go out and find some more elves and bring them back. But the problem was they were all so far. So, he decided to go anyway so he hopped on his motorbike and went down the runway. Santa needed speed to fly so he would go around 150 km to start flying. He started lifting off the runway and he was off. About 5 hours into the trip he started seeing little houses with lights on them. He knew he was close so he started slowing down and lowering his motorbike to the ground. When he hopped off his motor bike, he suddenly bumped into an elf.

The elf was pretty mad but then there were hundreds of elves so he stood up and told the elves that Christmas is in danger and he needed their help. The elves said that they would give 50 elves if he gave them his motorbike and they would give him a sleigh. Santa agreed to the deal and was off with 50 elves. When he got back only 28 gifts were made. But he said it's okay because I brought 50 elves and an old sleigh. Everybody started cheering and Christmas was never short on elves or gifts again.

A Wonderful Christmas

On a snowy Christmas eve, a family was preparing for Christmas. Sadly, though, this family was poor, so they lived under a warm sheltered bridge that they had turned into their home.

Lilly, who was 10, loved Christmas even though it was a very small Christmas. She loved Christmas because no matter where they were they were always together. Grandma always found excellent gifts for Lilly and Lilly's older brother Ben, who is 14. Grandma even made them brand new stockings this year. Dad went into the woods and got a Christmas tree, mom and Lilly crafted a few ornaments out of nature and Ben made sure the bridge was built strong enough to live in for the winter.

But something always bothered Lilly, that was the fact that last year Santa didn't find the bridge they lived under. So, Lilly thought that grandma was crazy making them stockings. "Ben, Lilly," grandma yelled sweetly, "You to have to write your Christmas letters to Santa and then I will mail them for you."

"Yay!" Lilly shouted, "thank you!"

"You're so welcome," grandma said happily. Five minutes later Lilly and Ben finished writing their Santa letters and grandma went to go mail them. Before she left, mom went up to grandma and said, "Don't you remember the look on Lilly's face when Santa didn't come last year?"

"They didn't write letters last year remember," Grandma said. When grandma got back, she told Lilly and Ben to go to bed. Lilly gave mom, dad, and grandma a hug then went to bed. Ben just obeyed.

Lilly was super excited for Christmas, she quickly fell asleep. She dreamed of Santa and the reindeer delivering presents. Suddenly she woke up remembering it was Christmas. Lilly ran to the main room under the bridge. Mom, dad, grandma, and Ben were already awaking. From Santa, Lilly got a candy cane, fifty dollars and a chocolate bar. From grandma, Lilly got a sketch book and colored pencils and from mom and dad Lilly got 20 pencils, 1 eraser and a pencil sharpener.

From Santa, Ben got a candy cane, fifty dollars and a bag of gummy worms. From grandma, Ben got a Nerf gun and bullets and from mom and dad Ben got another Nerf gun and more bullets. Everyone had a very merry Christmas.

The Worried Santa Claus

"Oh, are you sure you have all the gifts for Christmas?" asked Santa.
 "Yes and please stop asking," said Eve the elf.
 "But I'm just so worried about everything, what happens if we fall out of the sleigh, the presents fall out, if we are not fast enough and don't make it everywhere!?" replied Santa.
 "It will be okay," said Eve, and off they flew.
 "Okay, we got north and south America, Africa, Asia, Australia and Europe," said Eve.
 "Good," said Santa. "Now, we need to get Antarctica."
 "Okay, we'll be there in a jiffy," said Eve. BUMP!!! "We're here."
 "Good," said Santa.
 "There's the town, but you better be quick, the sun is coming up," said Eve. "Okay, I'm going," replied Santa.
 He grabbed his bag and went to the nearest house and jumped on the roof... and he got stuck in the chimney.
 "Help!" yelled Santa,
 "I'm coming," yelled Eve. When she got there she gave a yank and they both fell to the ground. "OH, NO, the bag fell in the house, how are we going to get it?," asked Santa. "I will," and off she went to go get the bag of toys. She went down the chimney, gave them their gifts and got out in time. "They were just about to waken," said Eve. "Then we better go TOY BOMBING," said Santa and up they flew.
 "Okay, Eve, drop the toys into the chimneys."
 "Got it." Aaaaannnnndddd, now!!!" said Santa, think, think, think. (A little while later) "We got all of them," said Eve.
 "Great," said Santa, and off they flew back to the North Pole!!

The High-Tech Automatic Sleigh

Dear Santa,
 You have made us reindeer pull your heavy sled around the world in one night every year. We need a break this year. No offence, but we do most of the work for you to get all the credit. We like leading the sleigh, but we need a break badly. All the reindeer agree on this, but for this year can you get a high-tech automatic sleigh.

The reindeer want this because of the break and you will need a way to get around the world. You could probably go even faster than we do. It would be a real game changer. The sleigh might even have more room. You won't have to worry about us having to take breaks or start to get sleepy.

You won't need to replace us with new reindeer. It would be smarter to get a high-tech sleigh. The sleigh will be way faster than the reindeer. The elves even agree on this decision, they know it's the right decision. (Ask them if you don't believe me).

The new sleigh might have a windshield. You always complain about having no windshield and snow getting in your eyes. We almost crashed because of that. I'm just trying to say that probably wouldn't happen. That is how much better it is than the old sleigh we have now. (Not trying to be mean, I am just saying facts).

Santa trust the reindeer on this one and get a high-tech automatic sleigh. It won't hurt your wallet that bad, you're pretty rich.

Santa do what you know you have to do. BUY A HIGH-TECH AUTOMATIC SLEIGH!!!

Dear Santa,

I'm the best elf! Santa, you should hire me for the job! I am a fast gift wrapper; I am a helpful elf around the workshop. I am a kind elf who gets along with everyone. I think I'm the best elf for the job. Pick me Santa!

Santa I am very fast at wrapping presents. One day there was a gift-wrapping contest, and I was able to wrap twenty gifts in only fifteen seconds! Wow! I won the contest! In the workshop, we could build toys right up until Christmas Eve and still have enough time to wrap all the presents. I am so fast at wrapping gifts!

I am the best elf for the job because I am so helpful! I always ask other elves if they need help with carrying things or with making toys. One time I helped thirty elves carry toys from the workshop to the sleigh without even anyone asking me. I am a helpful elf.

Santa I am a kind elf. I feed the reindeer carrots when they are hungry. I cheer them up when they are lonely. By being kind, it helps me to stay on task and make toys quickly.

I think I am the best elf for the job. I am a fast wrapper; I am helpful, and I am a kind elf. Santa, pick me for the job! I am the elf for you!

The Unexpected Christmas Tree

This story is about the Donalds: Kari, Ty and their three kids Katy, Owen and Ava. It is their first Christmas in Lockwood, and they are going to buy a Christmas tree. "Mom look," shouted Ava "it's the perfect tree!" "Oh, wow it is!" explained Kari. "Can we get it?" asked Owen. "Yeah, we can make an exception," said Ty. "How pretty would that tree look with its glimmering light and sparkly decorations sitting right in our own living room," explained Ava. "Well, let's load it up," said Kate. So, they load up the tree and headed back to their small town called Lockwood, to set up their Christmas tree. "Mom where are the decorations?" asked Kate. "UMMM, I think they are in the garage on the very top shelf. Your dad will have to get them," explained Kari. "But can I get them?" asked Owen in an almost silent voice. "No, you can't, it's way too dangerous," said Kari.

all shouted in fear. They run to the living room to see that their chandelier had fell on top of the tree knocking the pine needles off the tree. "The tree is now a Charlie brown tree," mumbled Ava. "It's cute," explained Kari. "It's something different." "Won't hurt us will it?" explained Ty. Christmas eve "Oh, Christmas tree oh Christmas tree how lovely are you branches," the family sang. "Ok kids it's time for bed! Ava, I know you're 14 but if you want SANTA to come you guys will have to go to bed," explained Kari. "THE TREE IS GONE!!!!" cried Owen. "No, it's not, it's just unique," explained Kate. "Can we get a new one?" asked Owen with tears running down his cheeks. "It's too late honey it's Christmas eve," explained Kari. The kids go to bed. BEEP...BEEP... BEEP the alarm sounds. "IT'S CHRISTMAS" yelled Owen racing into every room to wake everyone up. They race downstairs to see the biggest surprise ever. "The tree," softly says Kate. "What happened, it's back to normal" asked Owen. "I THINK SANTA GOT US A NEW TREE," yelled Ava in suspense.

The Donald family opens presents and then heads outside to join their friends to go around Lockwood singing Christmas carols. "WE WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS WE WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS WE WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPYYYY..... NEW YEAR!" they all sang. "I love Christmas," explained Owen. "Yeah, me too," yelled Kate. "Me three," yelled Ava. "Us four," yelled Kari and Ty in unison. "Great it's the Wilsons," mumbled Owen. "Hey guys," yelled Owen. "SUD" yelled the boys. "Nothing much what about..." "Whoa whoa whoa, you are supposed to say nothing much BRO ,what about you." "Man you have a lot of work to do if you want to be cool," explained the Wilsons. "Oh ok bye dudes," mumbled Owen. The END!

The Christmas Mystery

Once upon a time it was Christmas and there was a boy named Tom. He woke up and all his presents were gone. So, he woke up his brother.

"Did you take my presents?" he said.
Kasi replied, "No."

After he looked everywhere. While he was looking, he saw ripped wrapping paper leading to the backyard.

Next, he saw the dog with all of the presents chewed up. Inside the presents he saw the toys.

"The toys aren't broken!" he shouted. He opened some of his presents after breakfast. Then he realized that wasn't all his presents.

He turned around and saw his cats with his presents. He chased his cats. They ran all over the house. Tom caught one of the cats and he took the presents. Now he yelled, "bad cat!"

After a while he caught the last cat. He said, "Bad cat!" Then he went and put the presents under the tree.

Last he said, "We shouldn't let the cats go by the tree." Finally, they heard Santa say, "Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night."

Christmas Ski-Doo Trip

Once upon a time Andrew and his buddies were planning a ski-doo trip up in the B.C. mountains. Andrew's grandpa had a cabin up in the mountains, so they are going to stay up in the mountains when they go on their trip. When they started loading up the sleds, Jake's didn't want to start, so they popped the hood and seen oil all over the inside of the motor.

"That explains why it won't start," said Grant. "Let's push it on the trailer and take it to the Arctic Cat dealer," said Spencer. So, they got to Arctic Cat and got Stan, the owner, to take a look. He said, "that's a broken oil pump!" "How long do you think it will take to fix it?" asked Jake. "Well about a week after we order a new motor and get it put in," explained Stan. "Do you have any rentals that I can use because we were going on a trip?" asked Jake. "Well, I have a Polaris 850 if you want that," said Stan. "Sure, I'll take it" said Jake.

So, they loaded it and got on the road to the cabin. When they got there, they took their bags in the cabin and got their sleds unloaded.

"When do we want to go?" asked Grant. "Do we want to go tonight?" asked Andrew. "Sure" Spencer said. So they went and started their sleds and got their gear on. "Where are we going?" asked Jake. "Follow me," said Andrew. "I used to come here with my grandpa lots, so I know the trails like the back of my hand!" said Andrew. "Ok," said Jake. They went for their little ride and got to know the area. They went back to the cabin and got everything put away and had supper and then went to bed. The next morning, they got up bright and early, and got the sleds started, had breakfast, and left. They were riding along and Jake goes in front of them and suddenly...

THWAK
Jake hits a tree and gets hurt bad. Andrew, Spencer, and Grant kill their ski doo and run up to Jake. "Are you ok?" asked Grant. "I don't know!" Jake answered in pain. "We need to get you back to the truck and to the hospital," said Andrew. So Grant pulled up his ski doo and they lifted him on the ski doo and went back to the cabin fast but not too fast to hurt him more. They got him in the truck and rushed him to the hospital.

When they get to the hospital, Spencer and Grant took him in while Andrew parks the truck. When Spencer and Grant got in, Spencer asks for an x-ray ASAP. While Andrew, Spencer, and Grant wait in the waiting room, they pray that their friend will be ok.

After 20 minutes he comes out in a wheelchair with a nurse. "Does he have anything broken?" asked Andrew. "He has a fractured rib and broken shoulder," said the nurse. "So hurt really bad?" asked Grant. "Yup," said the nurse. They got him some medication and went back to the cabin to get their gear and sleds.

When they get back, they loaded up their sleds and bags. After, they went and picked up what was left of Jake's ski doo and got on the road home. They went to Arctic Cat and broke the news to Stan.

"So, we have something to tell you Stan," explained Andrew. "So, we were riding and Jake hit a tree with the ski doo you let us use." "YOU WHAT?" Stan barked. "We wrecked the ski doo!" explained Spencer. "Would you like to see what's left of it?" asked Grant. "Sure," Stan sighed. So, Grant opened the trailer door and Stan examined it.

"I think its fixable," explained Stan. "That's good news," said Andrew. "Did you get Jake's ski doo fixed?" asked Spencer. "Yes, would you like to take it home with you?" Stan asked. "Sure," said Spencer. "Is Jake hurt bad?" Asked Stan. "Well, he has fractured ribs and a broken shoulder," said Andrew. "Yeesh," Stan said. "Yup," Grant said disgruntled. "Well, lets load up Jake's and you will be on your way," said Stan. "Ok," said Spencer.

They loaded his ski-doo and went home and created great memories with great friends.

P.S. Jake got better and they went on many more ski-doo trips together (and they hit a lot more trees, haha).

THE END!

SNOW DAY!

If one morning I wake up and there is 3 ft of snow, I would go outside without even showering or eating! I would just put on my ski suit and I would get outside, start my snowmobile and go snowmobiling! I would be gone so fast! My parents wouldn't even see me in the field hitting snow drifts with snow splashing all over me. I would get wet and cold but that would not make me stop.

If my snowmobile were low on fuel, I would still keep going until it was SO low on fuel that the arrow was right on the E that stands for empty. If I were too low on fuel I would finally go fuel up and then ride until it was empty again and keep snowmobiling until my hands were frozen to the handle bars.

Until then, I would be in the bush or in the open field, riding through the snow. And that would be the perfect snow day!

New Sleigh for Santa

Merry Christmas

Cason SR
Grade 5R
MacLeod School

Dear Santa,
Hi, I'm Rudolph your leading reindeer on Christmas Eve! Santa, you need a new sleigh. I pull your sleigh with all the other reindeer. I see kids' houses every year and instantly know oh, that is Bob's house and that is Erika's house! I love my job, and I love seeing the same houses every year! There is one problem with my job, Santa. I'm tired of all the weight coming from your sleigh. I've been telling all the other reindeer about the sleigh's weight and they agree that you need a new sleigh. All the reindeers including me think we should get a break from all that weight from your sleigh. Even the elves think its unfair to us. GET A NEW SLEIGH!

One reason why you need a new sleigh is because we're tired of all the weight coming from behind us on Christmas Eve. It makes all of us reindeer feel mad and sore at the end of the night. SANTA YOU NEED A NEW SLEIGH. You are Saint Nick aren't you? Put some magic in it. Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Vixen, Comet, Cupid, Donner, Blitzen and I think you need a new sleigh. Also, the red one is boring. All the children give you milk and cookies which takes you longer and makes us pull all the weight. We all try not to break the roof.

The second reason why you need a new sleigh is so we can have a break. Your sleigh is much too heavy and it's boring. You need a new sleigh, Santa. You should get one that is mechanical so all of us don't have to pull that big sleigh around every time you need to deliver presents. Sometimes I want to do the things the elves do when I'm gone. They have a cool job like mine but much less painful. Please, Santa, please get a new sleigh. You can use us for getting groceries. Please get a new sleigh. We don't want to pull your pride and joy anymore.

Another reason to get a better sleigh is so we can have more time if the elves and Mrs. Claus want to open gifts on Christmas Eve. So please get a new sleigh. We love Christmas but we never get a break. We've been telling you that we're tired of your old sleigh.

Please get a new sleigh! Get an automatic sleigh! Please Santa. Please listen to us! I'm tired of all the weight. We are always sore at night. We need a break. Please Santa! Do us a favor and get us a new sleigh, you jolly old soul!

Signed,
Rudolph aka

The Santa Claus

Once upon a time there was a little girl that loved Christmas so much. She has a mom and a dad but her parents did not like Christmas and they did not like their daughter. The little girl's name is Marva. Now it is Christmas night! Marva heard a creak on the roof. It was Santa Claus! So, Marva went in the sleigh and then Santa went to the North Pole and Marva saw elves and the Northern Lights and then she saw Mrs. Claus and she was so pretty. Then Santa went in his sleigh and then he saw Marva.

Santa said, "What are you doing in the North Pole?"
"Well, I saw you and I wanted to get more presents," replied Marva.
"Oh," said Santa.

So, Marva stayed for a sleepover and the next day Santa's town was in trouble. A bad guy stole all the elves!

Santa said, "That's bad!"
So, Marva and Santa went on the sleigh and chased the bad guy. Then they grabbed the bag and they got all the elves back. Then Marva had to go back home and she got so many presents and she was so happy! The end!
