

The COVID Disaster

One day Santa was getting ready for Christmas when he felt icky. So he told his elf to make a rapid test for him. Well it's an elf so he whipped it up in 5 minutes. So Santa put the stick up his nose, "ACHO" and he waited for 15 minutes. Santa said "NO" I have COVID-19. How am I supposed to get the presents to the children. So Santa put on a disguise and went to the doctor.

The doctor said, "what's wrong?"
 "I have COVID-19!"
 "Ok, let's get you fixed!"
 "What's your name sir?"
 "Oh Christopher"
 "Ok Christopher you need to isolate for 10 days."
 "What's wrong?"
 "It's just I haven't seen my family in so long."
 "Well I'm sorry but you have to isolate I'm sorry."
 So Santa went back to the North Pole and sat in his sleigh.

"How am I going to do this?" he thought. And then an elf named Jerry came up to Santa and said "Santa I will deliver the presents."

"Good idea but are you sure you want to go to 17 billion houses in just one night?" asked Santa
 "If you can why can't an elf do it?"

So Jerry the elf got in Santa's sleigh and left in a blink of an eye. So Jerry was at his first house and he had a rough time. He ran into a dog that bit him on the butt and a cat that scratched him all over. But he put the presents under the tree and ate the cookies and well they were pretty good. So he went to all the other houses and well he only ate cookies at like three houses till he felt sick. Then Jerry came back to the north pole and Santa was impressed. "I wish Covid didn't exist"

"Yaw, I also wish I had the right gear for the cold. Then good and hopefully you don't get Covid next year" said Jerry.

"Yaw, I hope I don't" replied Santa.

What if Santa was Diabetic?

Santa, you need to lose pounds immediately! Christmas season is coming up soon! If you don't lose pounds, you won't be able to deliver presents. I think you should lose pounds so you can deliver presents. Also, so you can have the cookies and milk this Christmas.

You need to lose pounds; the reason is so you can have treats and be fast at getting all the presents delivered. It will be so much harder to fit down chimneys and if you lose pounds, you will be quieter and sneaky. Plus, if you don't, imagine all the kids who will be sad because they don't get any presents because you couldn't do it.

Another reason is that if you don't lose pounds, you may gain more weight from the cookies and milk. Cookies and milk aren't the best food for you, and you don't want more weight from them. You are going to be getting so many treats and you want to eat them to make people happy and you can't eat them if you weigh too much since it could hurt you to weight.

Another reason is that you will get diabetes if you eat more treats. If you want to eat more treats you need to lose weight. If you're diabetic, you might have to find someone to replace you as Santa. You might end up in the hospital if your blood sugar is high.

Santa, you need to lose pounds, or some bad things might happen to you like ending up in the hospital. The reasons are that you won't be fast at delivering presents, you will gain more pounds from the cookies and milk, and finally you might get diabetes.

I hope you lose some pounds so you can stay as Santa.

Six Christmas Dragons

Once upon a time, there were six friends living in a cave underground, in a mountain where it's very roomy. The six friend's names are: Clay, Starflight, Sunny, Tsunami, Glory, and Peril. It was snowy outside, and they loved playing in the snow so much, they needed hot chocolate. So, they went inside, and Peril checked the calendar and says, "tomorrow's Christmas, and we might want to get presents." Everyone froze, then wrote their names on a piece of paper and then put the pieces of paper in a hat and then took a piece of paper. Here is who everyone got: Starflight got Sunny, Glory got Clay, Peril got Starflight, Clay got Peril, Tsunami got Glory, Sunny got Tsunami. The next morning, only one present was under the tree. They said all at the exact same time (except Tsunami) "WHERE ARE OUR PRESENTS." "I'm the only one who got a present for someone?" says Sunny confused. Tsunami went to the kingdom of sand and got Sunny a bag of sand. Next, she went to the mud kingdom and got Clay some mud. Next, she went to the rainforest kingdom and got a sloth for Glory. Then she went to the unknown kingdom and got Starflight some scrolls.

Finally, she went to the sky kingdom to get some beautiful colored rocks for Peril. Tsunami didn't take a break and fell out of the sky and lost the presents, she looked and looked and finally found them quickly flew up got back home and wrapped them and gently put them under their Christmas tree. They all opened their presents and said "I love it so much, thank you Tsunami for these presents!"

THE END!
 MERRY CHRISTMAS EVERYONE!
 Hoped you enjoyed my story!

The Day I Saw Santa

Hi! It's me, Hannah. It's Christmas Eve and I am bored. I'm going to play outside. I love playing outside, it is really fun but it's time for bed. Good night!

It's morning...
 "YA!" I shouted. "I'm so excited to open presents and... GASP..."
 "What's that red thing?" shouted my little brother.
 "It's Santa!" I replied.
 "But what are you doing here Santa?" my brother asked.
 "I wanted say thank you for being so good this year!" cheered Santa.
 "Thank you. But you shouldn't be here! You should be in the North Pole with Mrs. Claus!" I yelled.
 "Ho ho ho! I know but she is busy right now, so I need company," Santa explained.
 "What about the elves?" I asked.
 "Ho ho ho! They're busy too, they are making toys for next year," Santa told me.
 I replied, "Oh okay."
 "Ho ho ho! Thank you for understanding," said Santa, cheerfully.
 "So, what do you want to do?" I asked.
 "I want to have a snowball fight!" Santa replied.
 "Okay let's go!" I said.
 A little while later I said, "This is awesome, but I'm getting cold, can we play inside?"
 "Ho ho ho, yes we can," said Santa.
 "What will we play?" I asked.
 "Ho ho ho! We will play floor is LAVA!"
 "Ok, that game is so much fun!" I said.
 "Ho ho ho! I know that is why I picked it. Ho ho ho! I think I should go home now."
 "Okay, bye!" I exclaimed.
 Santa went home in his sleigh and said "Ho ho ho! Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night!"
 The end.

The Eaten Elf

It was December 23 at 7:00 AM and at the north pole, Santa and all his elves were getting all the presents loaded up into the sack.

Meanwhile outside in the freezing cold Santa was getting the reindeer ready for tomorrow. By the time that was all done it was time for supper, and then bed.

The next morning Santa woke all of his elves up and said, "Rise and shine everybody." He lined them up and then said, "is everything ready because when nighttime hits I have to go?" Everyone said yes. So, nightfall hit and Santa was traveling to Saskatchewan, that is where he was going to start. He finished Saskatchewan in 3 hours and he was off to the rest of the world.

He finished in about 15 hours, he was just doing the last house and then was off to the North Pole. On his way back from delivering presents he saw that a lonely elf was running for dear life because there was a polar bear chasing after the elf.

So Santa lowered his sleigh but by the time he got down to the ground the elf had been eaten. Santa found something sharp in his sleigh to kill the polar bear. He cut the polar bear open and got the elf out. They then headed back to the North Pole and went back to making more presents for next year!

Dear Loli C. Lollicane,
 Hi cousin! It's me, Isaac! I have wanted a job as supervisor since I started my engineering degree. I chose Sector 3 because you were the Head of Sector 3 Management and I wanted to see you every time I went to work.

As you should know, I went to Candy Mint College to get a programming degree, and eventually managed to graduate. After that, I went to the USA to work at CLETF as an assembly specialist and worked for 10 years. Nine years went by peacefully, but the last one was when the rebellion formed to stop all testing. I quit out of pure panic. Then, I went to valve. You know, just read my resume. You know the recent "incident" that happened with Santa's Christmas Crew.

Thank you for reading this letter, cousin. I appreciate it. If you also sometimes assign rooms, I want one on the highest (non-executive) floor next to the elevator. If supervisors do get an executive room, please make it next to your room. Thanks, cousin!

The Night Before Christmas

It was Christmas night, Santa and his elves were ready for the night of cookies and milk. So, they sprinkled the magic dust on the reindeer's hooves and in a split-second Santa took off. Before Santa got out of the North Pole, he heard a crunch! Suddenly Santa's sleigh started to drop fast. Santa's sleigh broke and Santa hit the ground. Santa woke up. He was terrified but he knew that he had to get ready for the big night. Mrs. Claus made a hot chocolate for Santa.

"Thank you!" remarked Santa.

Santa got the elves in shape for the big night. Santa put the magic dust on the reindeer's hooves. Santa and his elves took off in a flash. Santa zoomed off doing city by city, town by town, village by village and farm by farm.

Eventually, Santa got to the naughtiest city. They stay up and try to trap Santa. They mostly get coal for Christmas. When Santa got to the last house he jumped into the chimney and put the presents under the tree. Suddenly Santa heard a bang! Santa jumped through the chimney. Outside Santa looked at the sleigh. Someone hit it with a sledgehammer. The sleigh can't move. He needs to get to the wood elves to get the magic piece of wood from the wood elves.

The wood elves are found in the North Pole to the west. The wood elves are rare. There is no way Santa can get to the workshop in time for next Christmas. He needs to get to a satellite to communicate to Mrs. Claus and the elves but to get a satellite in time Santa will have to hack the satellite.

The few elves with Santa cried, "That's not Christmas joy though."

Santa answered "I know. But we must though."

So, Santa hacked the satellite. He got a hold of Mrs. Claus. Mrs. Claus got the magic piece of wood to Santa with the extra sleigh. Santa got back in business. Christmas was saved! Everything went back to normal.

Home Alone

The thing I don't like about Christmas is the new Christmas movie, Home Alone. I just don't like it because it's not as funny or the same actors as the original Home Alone. It's completely different than the original one.

It's about two parents who sold their house but they want it back for their kids but they don't have enough money. A girl said that doll they had was worth $200,000, but the next day it was missing. Meanwhile that girl's big family was packing for a trip but then they left their kid home alone and since that kid was there when he seen the doll the parents thought that he took it so they went to the kid's house when he was home alone. Then at the end they realize the boy didn't take the doll, it was their nephew.

Zero stars.

The Christmas Miracle

There was a very kind girl named Lola and a very rude girl named Brenda. On Christmas morning Santa was on the way to deliver presents and he gave Lola some COAL and he gave Brenda a nice present. They were both confused as Santa as neither were excited. So, Santa who was watching over them said, "Oh no, I gave them the wrong presents."

He hopped in his sleigh and went back to town but by the time he got there it was morning. He couldn't go to town in the daylight or else they would be able to see him. He decided to wait in a cave until 10:00 pm.

He went to switch the presents in the morning. They saw them and even though it was after Christmas it was still awesome. In the end, Lola and Brenda became best friends.

The Christmas Adventure

On November 30th Brooklyn and Oaklyn wanted to put up their Christmas tree so they ran to their parents and begged "can we put up the Christmas tree." Their mom said "Ya!" But their dad said "NO." With excitement they listened to their mom and ran downstairs to get the Christmas tree, but it was too heavy, so they got their mom and dad to help them get it. At first their dad was grumpy but, in the end, he was happy that their family got to spend time with each other. Later that night when Oaklyn and Brooklyn were asleep, Brooklyn heard a loud noise, so she got out of bed and went to see what it was. She seen their elf, Tinsel flying around the room throwing toilet paper everywhere. So, she ran to Oaklyn's room and woke her up. When they got to the living room Tinsel was not throwing toilet paper, she was sitting in the tree with toilet paper everywhere. Oaklyn believed her sister Brooklyn, but she wanted to see tinsel move so she ran to her room and pretended to sleep. Brooklyn also went to bed but fell asleep. Every time Oaklyn heard a noise, she would run to the living room to see what it was but she never seen Tinsel Move, so she went to sleep.

to throw me again! It hurt and took a while to recover! Sorry for causing a commotion in the house! - Tinsel Oaklyn then felt bad for throwing Tinsel, so she left a note that said:
Sorry for hurting you Tinsel, I overreacted, and I hope you forgive me! So sorry! -Oaklyn
December 24th 5:00 p.m.:
Oaklyn and Brooklyn ate supper very fast, showered, and went to sleep. They were so excited for Christmas.

December 25th 12:00 A.M.:
Thump, Thump, Thump. Oaklyn and Brooklyn heard a noise. They jumped out of their beds and ran to the living room. There he was standing there, just before their eyes it was SANTA CLAUS! Santa panicked and shouted, "Go away you're not supposed to see me"! But the girls questioned "can you take us to the north pole"? Santa whispered, "yes but only if you follow one rule." The girls replied with excitement "what is it"? Santa exclaimed "only if you don't tell your parents"! The girls hollered "yes"! Off they went delivering presents house to house. They arrived at the north pole at 1:00 A.M. And Santa promised they would be home before their parents woke up. Brooklyn and Oaklyn toured the north pole for 2 hours then Santa hollered across the north pole "Girls you have to get back home"! But the girls were lost, they heard Santa, but they couldn't find their way back! The girls started yelling and screaming HELP! HELP! HELP! WE'RE LOST! But Santa never heard them correctly, all he heard was BLAH! BLAH! BLAH! And mumbling! So, he sent out some of his reindeer and elves to see what it was. When the reindeer and elves got to the girls the girls hopped on the reindeer backs and flew back to Santa's place. By the time they got back to Santa it was already 4:00 A.M. Santa hopped in the sleigh, grabbed the girls and flew off. On their way home Santa demanded they didn't tell their parents what happened and they would go straight to bed!

December 1st:
Oaklyn and Brooklyn were up early so they could see where Tinsel was but Tinsel was not in the living room anymore and there was no longer toilet paper wrapped around the tree, she had made hot chocolate. The girls enjoyed some hot chocolate then went back to bed. When their parents woke up Oaklyn and Brooklyn woke up too. Oaklyn told them that last night Brooklyn seen Tinsel flying around the room throwing toilet paper, so Brooklyn went to go get Oaklyn and when they came back Tinsel was sitting in the tree with toilet paper wrapped around the tree! Oaklyn said she stayed up for 3 hours trying to see Tinsel move and then she got tired and fell asleep. But when they woke up again Tinsel was making hot chocolate! Their parents were so confused and that made Oaklyn and Brooklyn mad so mad, Oaklyn threw Tinsel across the kitchen and Brooklyn dumped the left-over hot chocolate! They probably shouldn't have done that because their parents got so furious that they grounded the girls for 2 days, they couldn't have their phones, watch tv, they couldn't leave the house other than go to school, and Tinsel was gone for 1 week.

Christmas Morning:
The girls woke up super early so they could open presents, but when they got to the living room their parents weren't in there, so they went to their parents' room, but they weren't in there either so they went to the kitchen and found them. The whole family went to the living room and opened their gifts. They had so much fun! Still to this day the girls never told their parents what happened on Christmas eve!

One Week Later:
When Tinsel got back, she left a note that said: I know that you got mad and threw me Oaklyn, but I forgive you! Also please try not

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

from The Mosaic Company

The Wishes

It all started on December first when Mary and her family went to get a Christmas tree. So, they went down to a tree farm and there were no trees left. So, their family had to go to another tree farm and at that tree farm there were no trees left. But then they looked at the time and it was already 10:15 p.m. So, they went home and went to sleep. It's now December second and they needed a tree and fast. So, Mary's dad said "we will go to two more tree farms and if they don't have trees we'll figure something out." So they went to Chris's tree farm and Chris said, "I'm sorry if you're here for a tree we're all out." So, Mary's family went to one last spot, the man told them we're all out of regular trees, but we have a very special tree, we call it the wish tree. The family said "how much for it." The worker said, "it's on sale for 150 dollars." So, they bought the tree. But the family was curious why the man called it the wish tree. So, when Mary and her family got home, they went to her dad's laptop and searched wish tree.

What popped up was in 1979 a man named Joe Wonde who found the seeds in a bag on the side of the road, so he decided to plant them after the tree was fully grown, he sat down by the tree and wished for a wife. The next day the man found a girl and married her 3 months later. The man said the tree never dies and you only get five wishes. After Mary finished reading it, she asked, "Can I make the first wish please?" Her parents said, "yes." Mary went up to the tree and wisher for a new Barbie. Then they had lunch, after they went outside and built a snowman and when they came back inside there was a Barbie doll under the tree. Mary was so happy, then she saw something, it was elf and it was on her shelf. Mary was surprised. They decided to name the elf Buddy. By Buddy there was a note Mary read: Please do not touch me, if you touch me, I will lose my magic and tonight I will go tell Santa what you did today. After that Mary's dad wished for a 1974 Oldsmobile Cutlas. After that they went out for Christmas shopping. When they got home, they were going to park in the garage but there was an Oldsmobile 1974 cutlass in the garage. Mary's dad was speechless and was clueless. He didn't know why there was a real car and then he forgot to say model but instead now he has a whole 1974 Oldsmobile Cutlass. That's insane, now they have nowhere to put their car so tomorrow Dad will deal with the cutlass. When they got inside it was late, so they had supper. After they finish supper, they watched a show. Then Mary wanted some popcorn, so her parents went to the kitchen to make popcorn. While they were in the kitchen Mary went to the tree and wish for a kitten. After they finish washing the show and eating their popcorn, they went to bed and fell asleep instantly. When Mary woke up in the morning there was a kitten in her bed. Mary went running to her parents and told them there is a kitten in her bed. After her parents had breakfast Mary fessed up and told her parents she wished for the kitten. Fifteen days later it was Christmas and they had family over Mary got her gifts and they had a wonderful Christmas.

Christmas

One time a girl named Kasha wanted money. She asked her parents and they said NO! She runs away in disbelief thinking her parents don't love her. As she runs on a train to get away from her parents, she remembers the next day is Christmas and she has no money left to get back home. When she gets to her destination, she starts crying on the side of the road. Several people pass by thinking she's crying for attention. A few hours later still nothing. But she sees a bakery and she realizes she has enough for some bread. As she's walking up to the bakery two men steal all her money and they run away. As she stands there with no money she starts crying. A couple people come over feeling bad and give her ten dollars and walk away. As she yells thank you, she goes to the bakery that was four dollars and buys a ticket that was six dollars. When she gets back home no one is there, she realizes she got the wrong house that was three blocks away from her house. She walks fifteen minutes to her house to see her both parents both crying. She walks in her house and her parents look at her in relief. They run and say "Never do that again" while hugging her.

Santa's New Snack

Dear the children of the world,
I am tired of getting milk and cookies for all those years. You would be too. I am tired of getting milk and cookie every year and want a new snack to eat when I deliver you your presents. I am asking the children of the world to change the snack they leave out for me on Christmas night.

For the million years of delivering presents the same snack gets tiring. After stopping at thousands of houses, cookies get to be very old after a while, because there are only so many kinds of cookies in the world. Depending on the cookie some really don't taste that good. The snack I would choose is different pieces of pie, or chocolate.

Another reason why we need to consider changing the snack is after the milk sits out too long it goes bad. Have you ever tasted a glass of chunky milk? Believe me it is not that good. A way you can tell is that the milk is thicker with floaty particles in it. We could avoid this with a different snack completely. The snack we should consider would be, orange juice or water. I choose these because you really can't go wrong with these drinks.

The third reason is after eating so many snacks how I could fit into my clothes the next day. Every year I come home, and Mrs. Claus must make me new clothes the next day as I can't fit in to my clothes. The reason why I want a different snack is because Mrs. Claus is getting older, and she can't keep making me new clothes like she has been.

In conclusion I am hoping the children of the world will consider my wish of changing the snacks they leave out on Christmas eve. The reasoning is because cookies and milk have become really tiring, milk goes bad quickly and I have been struggling to fit into my clothes. I hope this writing makes you want to change your snack for my health.

RUDOLPH

Once upon a time there were two little reindeer, one named Rudolph and one named Noah. They were walking in the woods and they saw a pail with something in it... it was glowing... it was red... it looked gooey, like a big, gooey blob!

They were curious! Noah was too scared to go check it out so Rudolph did. He looked at it... it looked fine. So, he sniffed it and, POOF! A little bit of goo plopped on his nose and started to grow until it covered his nose.

And that, ladies and gentlemen, is how he became Rudolph the RED-NOSED reindeer.

The best elf ever

Dear Santa,
I'm the best elf ever! I'm a hard worker. I'm very kind and respectful. I'm an elf looking for a job! I'm good at wrapping presents! I would love to work for you. I'm very funny and generous. I saw you offering jobs for elves. I think I'm the best for the job.

I'm very good at wrapping presents and being a good elf. I was in a contest one time and I could wrap 25 presents in 30 seconds. I put a perfect amount of tape and decorations with bows, ribbons, stickers, and string. I always pick the best paper too!

I'm a very funny elf, I'm always smiling and laughing and I'm always making jokes and doing funny stuff. I can tell any joke. I love making people laugh. It's so fun! Plus you'll enjoy having me around the workshop to cheer people up!

I'm a very respectful elf. I help the other elves if they need help. I will help all the reindeer if they need anything. I would feed all of them. I would stay after hours to help you if you need help.

I think I'm the most qualified elf for the job. I would love for you to pick me! I'm respectful, I love to be kind and help other elves. I enjoy giving the reindeer treats. I hope you pick me! I will be there for any job.

Going To The North Pole

Carson and I went downstairs at midnight, and we saw Santa. We crawled into the sack to see the presents.

Carson said, "Umm the sack is moving. There is something in sack with us!"

Next thing you know Carson and I were scooped up and Santa walked out to his sleigh, and we went to the North Pole. The reindeer and the elf were talking, and they were building toys.

"You kids should not be here!" said Santa.

Santa said, "You should not be here! Uhm, do your parents know you're here?"

Carson replied, "Umm no."

Santa replied, "This is not good at all."

Heydan asked, "Can we stay for the night Santa?"

Santa said, "Umm I guess you can but just for one night." Ms. Clause made us food. She said, "The food will be great."

Meanwhile they were eating supper. Then they were going to bed. When it was morning Santa said, "Let's go home." We got home and sat on the couch. Our mom was waking up and Carson and Heydan said, "Merry Christmas, let's open gifts!"

Heydan yelled, "I got a sled with rockets on it!" Carson got the same as I did. We went outside and tried it and it went fast. That was the best Christmas ever!

Scary Christmas

Once upon a time there were three kids named, Liana, Sofie, Ben. One day they went to the basement to get their decorations, but they saw a statue of Santa, it was all white and cracked,

"Ah it moved!" screamed Liana. They ran upstairs to see that all the decorations were already up "But how," said Sofie. They called their mom, and she was sad, but why? Well, it was all starting again, what was? The scary Christmas, it all started when Liana was born, ever since it gets worse and worse, but this is only the beginning.

First, stuff moves randomly on its own. Next, we hear weird noises at night. They heard screams! Lastly, you will wake up to people walking around, but they were dead. "So, ghosts", said Liana "yes" said ma. They went to bed then woke up to dead people, like ma said.

But... They ignored it and did Christmas like in the old days. It was over, the curse was gone! Now thanks to the kids it was all over! MERRY CHRISTMAS! Until...

One Christmas Night
 There once was a girl up in her bed, when she awoke from hearing wheels
 on a sled.
 She laughed in joy,
 and went to see if she had gotten a toy.
 When she went to see,
 she buckled in her knees.
 The man who was jolly,
 didn't have her dolly.
 He saw her expression,
 it was a mix of shock and depression.
 She asked if she had been good and kind,
 but he did not give a reply.
 He lost her gift on the way there,
 when he told her she brought up a glare.
 Santa whispered "C'mon let's go,
 I'll leave a note so your parents know."
 They got in his sleigh,
 and dashed away.
 They went to America, Africa,
 Alaska and even Nebraska!
 Santa sighed, "This is hard to find."
 Just then she saw,
 the little doll.
 The girl cried with joy,
 that they finally found the toy.
 Just as Santa was going to speak,
 the little girl awoke from her crazy dream.
 Her parents told her Santa came,
 and there was a present with her name.
 When she went to open it,
 she found a note that said,
 "Thanks for helping me find your toy,
 I hope it brings you lots of joy -San-

Christmas with no snow

The only thing that I don't like around Christmas time is when there is no snow. I mean, if there is no snow, what's the point? It's just cold out and you can't do anything. Like riding on snow machines, building snowmen, building snow forts, skiing, sliding and watching snow fall. Say goodbye to that!

But other than that, I love Christmas! The songs, the decorations, the holidays, the celebration, the family time, the games, the food, the sweets, the snow and the tree. It's the most wonderful time of the year because the lights bring light to the house, the decorations make me happy. The family time makes me relaxed, and the games and snow makes the holidays fun!

The Day Something Happened on Christmas?...

It was the night before Christmas. Santa was preparing for Christmas. He was putting on his suit and the elves were loading the sleigh with presents. Santa noticed his reindeer was gone so he looked for him for 20 minutes. He was running out of time so he went to the village and asked if anyone had a spare reindeer that he could use to deliver presents. Suddenly he heard a voice! It was an elf named Joe. He told Santa he had a reindeer farm and Santa now had an idea. He asked Joe the elf if he could borrow his reindeer named Bob to help him pull his sleigh to deliver presents.

So he went to his farm and took Bob the reindeer with him and he went to go hook the sleigh up. He then slipped on some ice when he was walking back. He broke his hand and now he could not deliver the presents because he could not steer his sleigh. Santa asked Mrs. Claus to go get an elf that could deliver the presents. All the elves in the workshop were now on vacation so he went back to Joe and asked him if he could drive the sleigh and save Christmas.

Joe started delivering presents. He started in Canada and ended in Asia. When he almost was done Santa's hand began to feel better. I hope there isn't much icy weather so I can deliver the presents again as that is my favorite thing about Christmas.

"I saved you all the cookies!" yelled Joe.
 "Thanks Joe" chuckled Santa and "HO HO HO" he said happily.

Christmas Day with My Family

A perfect winter snow day with my family would be wonderful because we can all work together to make a snow fort and make snowmen guards around the snow fort. Then my family and I can watch a movie together. While we watch the movie we can each enjoy a mug of hot chocolate and a bowl of popcorn. The next day we can make some sugar cookies and play some board games and card games. We can have a gingerbread house competition and my dad will be the judge. He definitely would choose me.

Covid Christmas

The day before Christmas eve the elves were so excited to give all the kid their presents.

Santa asked "can you give me a rapid test to see if I have Covid? I don't want to give the kids Covid!"

"Sure" said Papa.

The next day Papa elf said "its done!"

"Okay let's check!" said Santa

"I have Covid!" screamed Santa.

"Now none of the kids will get their presents. What are we going to do?" asked Santa

Mrs. Claus said "I can drive the sled."

Santa asked "does anyone want to go with her?"

The elves replied, "We can, we will all go."

Everyone got their presents after all.

"Now everyone will be happy!" said Mrs. Claus

The fuss wasn't so bad after all and everyone had a Merry Christmas.

A Christmas Miracle

'Twas the night before Christmas. The kids and parents were sound asleep in bed. But one little girl named Madeleine could not seem to sleep. As the snow was falling, she looked outside the window and saw 10 feet of snow!

All she was thinking was what if Santa can't get in the chimney? Her worst nightmare soon came true. She heard knocking on the door... Madeleine stuttered, "But... are you... are you!"

The man at the door said, "Yes! I'm Santa."

"Wow!" Madeleine stood, surprised.

Santa said, "So do you want to help or not?"

"Of course I do!" she answered.

Santa's sleigh was covered in snow.

"How did all of this snow get here?" she asked.

Santa pointed to the sky.

He said, "From the sky, look around! There's at least a good 10 feet. Concentrate!"

"Why? It's not like we have a time limit," said Madeleine.

"Actually, we do. See, this says 6 hours," Santa said, pointing at his magic watch.

After 3 hours of work, Santa's sleigh was shoveled out.

And that, ladies and gentlemen is how the Christmas disaster of 2021 was solved!

The Christmas that Started Everything

Ten thousand years ago, before there was any humanity on earth. Suddenly in one red flash and green light and a 'HO HO HO' then a jolly old man in a red sleigh came up from the sky. He realized there was no one to give presents to. For thousands of years, he's been alone until HUMANS arrived. Finally, he had someone to give presents to. This is Christmas, he decided pondering on the new word Christmas!

That was the start of Christmas!

Reindeer Wanted

One day, a bad guy put up a poster that said:

 Name: Rudolph the Red-Nosed reindeer
 Last seen: Last Christmas
 Number: 204-337-9252
 Reward: $295,963,972,925

Then a naughty kid that saw the poster, quickly got all his winter clothes on, took a plane, met an evil elf and finally made it to the North Pole. He snuck into the stables... to be continued!

Family Christmas Supper

Every Christmas we have all of our family over at our grandparents' house. Everybody brings presents and gives each other a hug. It's really a magical sight! But that's not the only good part. One of the best parts is when lunch and supper comes. We all feast on great food like turkey, potatoes, stuffing, gravy, peas, salad and much more.

The best part about it is the homemade stuffing with gravy and turkey. One time I took so much my dad made a bet for $50 because he never thought that I could finish it. But I did, and since then I was $50 richer! After the meal, things keep getting better. We always have a huge selection of desserts from pies to cookies. There's lemon pie, truffle cake, strawberry fruit cake, sugar cones and homemade Oreo cookies. My favorite is the Oreo cookies or the truffles. It's so good—the whipped cream from the truffles just melts in your mouth.

I would never trade any meal for that one!

I'm The Best Tree

Dear Family,

Hi family! I'm the best tree out of all the other trees. The reason I'm the best tree is that I'm tall, I smell like flowers and I'm so cool. I think you should pick me because I'm the best one out of all the other trees.

First, I'm the tallest tree. I have evidence to support that I'm the tallest tree, like I have 5 tallest tree trophies. I have a measuring tape for you to measure me with. I'm the tallest tree. You'll see if you just stand in front of me. I'm practically as tall as your house.

Second, I smell like flowers! JUST SNIFF ME! OK! YOU WANT MORE!!! Take my leaves and sniff it. It hurts but I'll do whatever I can to get your family to pick me.

Lastly, I'm so cool! I have won 10 coolest tree trophies. Take these cool sunglasses and just take this trophy and PLEASE PICK MEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE!

Pick me, I'm the best tree, I'm tall, I smell like flowers and I'm cool but you already know that now. Pick me please!

The Grinch Saved Christmas Again

Once upon a time the Grinch was getting ready for Christmas and his dog Max was helping him. It was Christmas Eve and almost midnight. The Grinch got into his Christmas pajamas and set out a plate of cookies and a glass of warm milk, then the Grinch and Max got into bed. Meanwhile mayor Augustus May who was waiting for Santa Claus to come, he grabbed Santa Claus, tied him up and stole all the presents.

Max saw the whole thing and went to wake the Grinch up. The Grinch hopped up and ran outside to see tracks in the snow. He ran around following the tracks. The Grinch made an electric sleigh and Max got his reindeer friends to help.

They chased the fake Santa Claus around and around. Max jumped out and landed in the sack of presents and pushed him off of the sleigh, they finally got him and sent him tumbling down. Max called every Who in Whoville.

The Grinch made sure he had everyone's attention and then he took the mask off, and it was mayor Augustus May who. Everyone gasped. He tried to explain and said, "the Grinch is a thief! He stole my girlfriend, Martha." Martha May spoke "I love the Grinch!" Martha slapped the mayor in the face. The mayor was very mad, and he said, "well you won't be able to find the real Santa Claus so hah!"

Martha and the Grinch ran back to where the tracks all started. And there was Santa all tied up.

The End. Merry Christmas!

How do people like raisin cookies? They are just dried grapes. They also taste very bad. The texture is super disgusting. When your grandma or someone makes cookies and they smell good and stuff and you take a bite and it's crunchy and then your teeth hit a mushy thing and you start chewing and you realize - EWWW! It's a raisin. And then the taste is stuck in your mouth. Over all, raisins taste bad, and they look very odd. And people just ruin Christmas with raisins.

Christmas

It all started in the woods.

A boy named Rykr heard a stick break and it was a kid. So Rykr took the kid to the North Pole. It was very, very cold. So instead they went back in the woods and got winter clothes. Then they went back to the North Pole. But Rykr forgot his gloves. So they had to go back to the woods. Instead of going back to the North Pole they went to Rykr's house and the kid loved Rykr's house. It was going to be night soon, so they went to bed. But the kid did not want to go to bed. Then Rykr saw the kid was Santa.

Then Rykr said, "Are you really Santa?"

The kid said, "Yes."

Rykr asked if he could go on a ride on Santa's sled and the kid said yes.

Rykr said, "Yes! Yes! Yes!"

Then Rykr said, "Can we go to the North Pole?"

The kid/Santa said, "Yes."

Then Rykr said, "It is almost Christmas!"

Then Santa said, "Rykr, can you help me deliver these presents?"

Rykr said "Yes!"

Then they were done so then Rykr went to bed and then the next day it was Christmas. The end.

CHRISTMAS

Santa was at the North Pole and he got sick but he said I got Christmas to do and I got to deliver presents. So that is when Walker and his family and their dog found a sleigh. Their elf George went to the North Pole to give Santa help. On his way to the North Pole, George the elf told Santa he has a test in case he gets Covid too. Santa asked him to pick him up some vaccine and some WD 40 for his sleigh. The next day Walker and his family opened presents. They had a great Christmas!

The Night Before Christmas

Today was December 20, Jeff and his family are going to Texas for Christmas. Jeff is a troublemaker and so when Jeff's older brother was on the couch, Jeff poured maple syrup on him, then glitter and feathers. POOOOOOOFFFFH! 'I WILL GET YOU JEFF!!!!'

Meanwhile Jeff's twin brother Leo was pranking their sister Mary by painting an onion to look like an apple. Then when Mary came downstairs and took a BIG bite of it, LEOOOOO!!!! Leo ran all the way to their room. Jeff was there too, then Mary came running in. She said, "If you eat 10 onions then you will turn into the Grinch." The twins said, "Who's the Grinch???" "He's a green eating machine," said Mary. Three hours later the twins gave 10 onions to Leo and he ate them. POOOOOFFFFH!!!! LEO GOT TURNED INTO THE GRINCH!!!!!!

JEFF tried to run but it was too late, Leo the Grinch ate him and the family were never seen again....

3 More Days til Christmas

It was three more days til Christmas. Jake and Max are ready for the holidays. "Uh oh," said Jake. "We don't have a tree. Santa won't be able to put the presents under the Christmas tree. Now they're ready for the holidays.

"Let's go get the lights," said Jake. They went into the basement and grabbed the lights and went back upstairs and put the lights on the Christmas tree.

"We need an angel," Max said. "Where is the angel!"

"It's in the Christmas box," Jake's dad said. The boys went to the closet and grabbed the Christmas box and brought it to the living room. They opened the box and looked through it. "I found it," Jake said. He pulled it out and put it on top of the tree.

"We need the ornaments," Max said. They looked through the Christmas box and put them on the tree. They put up all the Christmas decorations and wore their Christmas sweaters. Now they're ready for the holidays. Have a great Christmas!

  - 3) Have a friend or two making snowballs for attack.
  - 4) Have things to hide under from the snowballs.
  - 5) Have good aim to hit the people. You should have a target in your home base.

  - 8) Have fun!

Why I don't Like Jelly Salad

What is wet, slimy and tastes gross?
Jelly salad.

Once upon a time I was eating at the table Christmas Day and I see this green stuff in a bowl. I asked my mom, "What is this?" and she says "It's jelly salad."

So I tasted it and, gross! The Jell-o touches my tongue and then the chunks of vegetables and dirt. I force myself to swallow it. It was the grossest thing I ever tasted. That's why I don't like it.

Buddy Rock's resume

628 Grinch Town
North Pole

Work Objective:

I'm seeking the job as a security elf because a lot of people are sneaking into the north pole. But they're HUGE and I'm tiny, so if they break in, the only person that can stop them is Santa. But I'm kinda wrong that I can't stop them, because if we elves group together then we over-power humans. So that is why I want this job.

Highlights:

- A great quality of myself is patience.
- What I'm interested in is Santa's hat and his glasses.
- One of my most done skills in fixing machines.

Work Experience:

- Engineer for the Sleigh
- Body guard for Mrs. Claus
- Candy Maker

Work Objective:

I am applying for this job because I think it suits me and I can milk cow's udders in like 30 seconds and that is all 4 nipples too! Egg collector, I'm good at that too! Like I can be a fox, then quickly change back to an elf and snatch those eggs. Teddy Stuffer, I can fill a whole teddy in like a matter of 45 seconds and that's the legs and arms too!

Highlights:

- Quick and quiet on every job
- Always have carrots in my pockets for reindeer
- Can count on me for anything
- I also can't really die
- I can fit in small spaces

Work Experience:

I lived on a farm for 27 years and milked cows every Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday, and went and got eggs every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, so I'm pretty good. I also worked at Build a Bear for 13 years.

Volunteer Work

- Helped Charlie spray paint the school in 1909
- Collected buttons for Frosty in 1849
- Practically set up the store in Elf

Education:

Got a scholarship at Utah Stocks College and Classic Minecraft College/studio but then quit to pursue my cow milking career as well as my build a bear career. I originally applied to Snowman Singing School as well as Nutcracker Knitting Academy but didn't get in. But then I thought I don't need a good education to be a legend. And plus I already kinda am. So, I didn't go to college. I went to school at Point Seda Palave then for elementary school, I went to Ferro Rochet Centre.

THE CHRISTMAS INCIDENT

On Christmas Eve Santa was packing up all the presents and when he went to go tell all the reindeer his face lit up. He saw that Rudolph had hurt his leg and it was broken. Santa asked Rudolph what happened, and he told him that when he took a fly around the North Pole his magic began to fade. Rudolph told Santa it's because kids aren't remembering you anymore. What does that mean they don't remember me anymore thought Santa. Rudolph explained that it means we have to go to one city and show them you are real, so they decided to go to New York city.

Santa and Rudolph thought surprising children at the outdoor rink would be best to show them you are real. They were worried people would run because they would think Rudolph was a wild reindeer on the loose. Santa had an idea. They would disguise Rudolph as a Great Dane. Santa would disguise as a man in a tuxedo. The plan worked out better than I thought it would. Well one long night delivering presents and one long day to go. Santa parked the sleigh on a tall store by the outdoor skating rink. He told Rudolph ok get ready to shine and he said he was ready to shine, 3,2,1, shine Rudolph shine. Is that Rudolph said a random person. Rudolph began to fly! The magic works and everybody remembers me! said Rudolph.

Sleigh Trouble

The North Pole was chilled and it was Christmas. The elves were preparing the sleigh and reindeer. The lunch bell rang so all the elves left the room. The sleigh room alarm rang so the elves ran to see what the problem was. The sleigh was gone! The reindeer were still there and they were eating carrots. Santa called the elves and they said they didn't give them any carrots.

"Hmmm who did then?" asked Santa. So Santa watched the camera and saw that one of the reindeer knocked it down the launch bay. He still did not know how the reindeer got the carrots. It turned out that all the carrots fell off the shelf on the wall. The Elf on the Shelf pushed them off. Santa and the elves went looking for the sleigh and they found the magic star at the bottom of the hill. Who do you think is to blame?

The Best Christmas Tree

Hey family over here! I hear you are looking for the best tree; well that's me. I am the tallest tree, I am the easiest to hang stuff on, and I smell the best. Pick me, please!

First, I am the tallest tree out here. Somebody came to measure how tall every tree is and I was the tallest.

Also, I am the easiest tree to hang stuff on. Kids were having a contest to see who can get the most ornaments on a tree without them falling off. Well guess what? I had 82 ornaments on my branches! One day there was a big snowstorm. Every tree had lights flying everywhere except on me. Not a single light blew off!

Next, I am also the best smelling tree. A woman was admiring how good I smell but she was going to be late for work. When she was over two miles away she called the tree shop and said, "I can still smell your tree (me) and I am 2 miles away from the tree shop!" Kids came over to see what tree smelled better, a Christmas tree (me) or an air freshener. I won!

To end off I am the best tree out here. I am the tallest tree, I am the easiest to hang stuff on, and I smell the best. Family you should really pick me to be your Christmas tree. Like I said before, I am simply the best one.

On Christmas Eve some kids set out milk and cookies. In the morning the milk and cookies were gone and there were lots of presents. But their parents were missing. The children screamed, "Ahhhhhh! Our parents are missing!" They searched and searched for their parents but they couldn't find them. They hid under the Christmas tree. They were scared that someone took their parents. They came out from under the tree. They looked in their parent's room and their parents were sleeping.

The kids yelled, "Mom! Dad! Get up! It's Christmas!" The parents got up and went to the kitchen to get some coffee. They opened their presents. The one kid screamed with joy, "Yay! I got a teddy!"

They had lunch. For lunch they had pancakes and bacon. The kids love pancakes and bacon. It was the best Christmas ever! That was a Christmas they would never forget.

Santa Wants A Moustache

Dear Santa,
Have you ever wondered if Santa would look better with a moustache? Well, I have, so I will tell you my thoughts. Santa's beard is way too long and matted. I want him to shave it and turn it into a moustache.
Firstly, if Santa got a moustache, it will not be as dirty and matted. You will not get milk spills or cookie crumbs on a moustache. When Santa goes down the chimney there is less of a mess on a moustache.
Secondly, without his beard Santa will be lighter and smaller.

So, he will be able to run faster and will fit down the chimney easier.
Thirdly, he will not have to worry about tripping over his beard. He will not have to worry about tripping and falling through the house roof or falling on Dasher or Dixon.
Lastly, I want Santa to shave his beard. Santa's life would be way better with a moustache. So, Santa get the razor out and get a moustache.

Christmas Crisis

One day Joe was playing with Billy it was a snow day.
Joe said, "This is the best snow day ever."
Billy said, "Yay! Let's have a snowball fight."
Joe said, "Yay!"
They started fighting then Joe heard, "DINNER."
Joe said, "That's my mom got to go."
"Bye" said Billy.
The next day walking home from the park Joe said "It's two days until Christmas. On Christmas eve Billy's mom said "Sorry but grandma can't come."
Joe shrieked "Nooo!" Joe went to see Billy and said "My Grandma can't come this Christmas!"
Billy said, "I can come on Christmas."
"I wish Grandma could come," Joe said.
Two hours later Joe said, "Let's go snowmobiling."
Billy said "Yay!"
Then there was a knock on the door so Joe answered it. It was GRANDMA!
"GRANDMA!" Joe shrieked.
"Ha!" said grandma
"THIS IS THE BEST CHRISTMAS EVER," said Joe.

Skiing Gone Wrong

A skier was going to Assessippi when his skis fell off the truck. They went into the bush. He went to look for them but he had to go so far into the bush that he got hurt. He yelled for help but no one could hear him. He tried to get up but then he noticed his leg was stuck under a boulder. He tried to push it off but he could not.
He tried to call his family but he didn't have any cell service. He then remembered that they were going to set up WIFI at 2:30 pm. It was 11:14 so he waited and waited until they put it up. However, he couldn't get service. But he heard something magical ... jingle bells. It was Santa! Santa kindly used his candy cane lifter to free his leg. He stumbled back to his family and told them his Christmas adventure. Santa let him keep an elf to cheer him up. Anyways the elf was tired of the North pole and wanted to learn to ski at Assessippi.

Naughty Grinch

It was the day before Christmas and me and my friends were sledding down the big hill in town. Then at 5 o'clock Mason, Harley and I got cold, so we got some hot chocolate. After that we all went home for supper.
Then after super I took a shower and got ready for bed and then when I fell asleep. I heard a huge crash and I got up to see what it was. Then from the top of the stairs I saw Santa throw the Grinch across the living room. So, I went to see if the Grinch was ok, but he was gone. Then I heard sirens, it was the cops chasing the Grinch. I asked Santa what happened, he said "the Grinch jumped me while I was delivering your presents!"
So then I hopped on my ski-doo to help chase the Grinch. I saw him in the back of the cop car. He was put away for good!!!!
