

How to supplement your wedding invitations with a wedding website

Wedding invitations traditionally include a few different cards and a whole lot of information. If you're planning a wedding and want to cut down on the amount of paper you send, a wedding website is the perfect way to communicate with your guests.

WHAT NEEDS TO BE ON THE INVITATION

All basic information about your wedding needs to be on the invitation. This includes the full names of the bride and groom to be, the location of the wedding and the date and time it'll take place. Traditionally, your parent's names would also be included, but if you're paying for your own wedding, you can take or leave this tradition. Include the URL to your wedding website so people know how to access it.

RSVP CARDS

Your guests need a way to tell you whether or not they can make it to your wedding. You can include this with your invitation, or have people respond on your website. Both options are acceptable, but keep in mind that some of your older guests may not understand the lack of a response card.

What to put on your wedding website

Use the website to let your guests know about accommodations, the gift registry and directions to the venue. You can also include some photos of the two of you, introduce guests to your wedding party or add local fun facts for people from out of town.

For a memorable graduation ceremony. . .

A formal, or prom, is a major social event that has to be planned several months in advance. Here are 10 things all you girls out there need to think about before your big day.

1. Outfit

Are you thinking about renting, buying or making your outfit? Incidentally, you don't necessarily have to wear a dress; other outfits can be just as elegant. Dare to be original!

2. Shoes

Flat shoes or strappy high heels? Whatever your choice, make sure they're comfortable, especially if you want to dance the night away.

3. Beauty care

Hairstyle, makeup, manicure and waxing; make your appointments as soon as possible. Are you worried or uncertain about a new look?

Experiment a few weeks in advance.

4. Jewelry

Everything goes. Tasteful hairpins, earrings, necklaces and bracelets enhance any outfit.

5. Accessories

A small handbag is essential for carrying small items such as mascara and lipstick. After all, you'll probably want to touch up your makeup during the evening.

6. Flowers

A fresh flower can add a beautiful touch to your outfit, whether it's tucked into your hair or worn on the wrist. Check with your date; maybe he's already thought about this!

7. Souvenirs

Would you like to immortalize this wonderful moment in your life? Enlist the services of a professional photographer for some great shots.

8. Your date

Are you planning to go with a date or with girlfriends? If you opt for the first choice, tell your date which colours you'll be wearing so he can choose an outfit that blends with yours.

9. Arrival

Plan with your friends how you're going to get to the prom. If you want to make a grand entrance, book a limo.

10. Return home

Once the evening is over, will you call a taxi or ask someone to pick you up? Think about it and make plans ahead of time.

Now you're ready for an unforgettable evening and you can just relax and enjoy the anticipation.

Be ready for the big day!

CELEBRATING YOUR UNIQUENESS

Three unique wedding reception ideas

If you're getting married, but the thought of a traditional wedding reception leaves you cold, try one of these three fun alternatives:

BRUNCH RECEPTION

For early birds, a morning ceremony and brunch reception is the way to go. Ask your preferred breakfast spot to cater and then serve all of the breakfast classics with espresso drinks to wake your guests up. Just because it's early in the day doesn't mean you have to have a dry wedding — mimosas anyone?

BACKYARD BARBEQUE

If you prefer to spend your Saturday nights drinking beer and hanging out with friends, why not have a backyard wedding? Find a caterer that specializes in barbeque and get dirty with some ribs or pulled pork. Serve local craft beers and set up some old-fashioned lawn games.

COCKTAIL PARTY

Do you find banquets a bore but still want to dance the night away? Host a cocktail party! Your venue can pass around lots of appetizers and you can create a signature cocktail for the night. With this type of reception you can use a smaller space to accommodate your guests.

DRESSES ARE BEGINNING TO ARRIVE in time for Wedding & Grad Season!
