REOPENING

MOOSOMIN • JULY 17, 2021

Bareback, saddle bronc and bull riding are the three events that will be featured at the Moosomin Bulls and Broncs event this Saturday in Moosomin.

Celebrate Reopening July 17, 2021, Moosomin

Moosomin's Reopening Celebration will be held this Saturday, July 17, with three main components:

- The Chamber of Commerce Parade at 10 am. The theme is Celebrate Reopening/Goodbye to Covid. Rather than an individual being honored as parade marshal this year, the parade is dedicated to everyone who helped us get through Covid—nurses, doctors, frontline workers, everyone who played a role!
- The Moosomin Community Market 11am to 4 pm. The market is located next to Celebration Ford and features a wide array of vendors.
- The Bulls and Broncs event at 7 pm. The Bulls and Broncs will feature Bull Riding, Bareback and Saddle Bronc at the Moosomin Rodeo grounds. See more details inside this section!

In place of Moosomin Rodeo, scheduled for after full opening in Sask.: Bulls and Broncs event set for July 17

BY KEVIN WEEDMARK
Saskatchewan has been fully open since July 11 and the Moosomin Rodeo Committee is planning a Bulls and Broncs event for this Saturday, July 17.

The Moosomin Rodeo Committee is planning the Bulls and Broncs event as a pared-down rodeo that will not include all the regular rodeo events, just three rough stock events—bull riding, bareback and saddle bronc.

Rather than the usual two-day rodeo, the Bulls and Broncs event will be one day, with rodeo action going Saturday evening at the Rodeo Grounds.

With the end of masking and crowd limits in Saskatchewan July 11, the Moosomin Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual parade on the morning of July 17.

The Chamber of Commerce will promote the event as a celebration of Saskatchewan's reopening, promoting the parade, local businesses, the Community Market, the Bulls and Broncs event and any other events that day.

There will be no individual honorary parade marshal this year—the parade is in honor of everyone who got us through the pandemic and to the point of reopening—doctors, nurses, pharmacists providing vaccinations, front-line workers—everyone who has played a role.

"The official name is Bulls and Broncs 2021,

Scenes from previous Moosomin Rodeo events. This year there will be bull riding, bareback and saddle bronc at the Bulls and Broncs event which will be in place of the full rodeo.

hosted by Moosomin Rodeo," said Mike Sidoryk of the rodeo committee.

"We wanted to host something and not just let it go by. Hopefully everything changes for next year, and we'll go back to the full event.

"We wanted to have something to have some activity on the rodeo grounds again, after not being able to have an event last year.

"Cutting back the event helps the expenses, and helps the personnel, but it's still something happening."

He said the events that will be held in the Bulls and Broncs are some of the most popular rodeo events.

"On the spectator side of it you'd have to say that bull riding is definitely the fan favorite. That's what everybody is excited for, that's what everybody wants to see. And with bucking horses, it's the same kind of scenario there.

"So just holding these events helps out on the contestant level. The contestants on the rough stock side are manageable. If we did have a full rodeo with it being one of the first ones in this area, between two performances in our slack, you'd have well over 100 barrel racers alone. That's 100 trucks, 100 trailers, that's just one event. You add everybody else in, and there are a lot more contestants in a timed event versus rough stock.

"We went with this side because we thought it would be a little bit easier to manage and we'll run with that.

"The arena's not being fully utilized on the south side of the arena. We don't need the extra people for working cows and steers on that side. We need the people on the bucking chute side to look after that. Even this year too, gate wise, you still need people to work a gate but you're not going to have two gates. So everything is almost 50 per cent for the volunteers you need. Even the beer gardens."

Sidoryk says it feels good to be getting back into gear as a rodeo committee after a year off.

"A few months back when we said we're going to have a rodeo and we're going to make it happen, everything was looking good. Then the regulations tightened which really, really hampered the situation, mainly the spectators side of things. That really closed things up and getting contestants on the grounds and parked and following all the rules was going to be tough. But it's good to be back at it."

The Bulls and Broncs event will include a beer garden, but some of the other events that have happened around the rodeo are not being planned for this year. "We won't have the Rodeo Idol this year or some of those things. With it not being the typical full rodeo, that was a way to just step back a little bit," said Sidoryk. "Hopefully next year we're right back to normal and a full event."

"We're lucky we're going to be able to do this, and next year we should be right back to a regular rodeo."

Reopening celebration this weekend

Moosomin is celebrating reopening on Saturday, July 17 with three events.

On July 17 there will be a parade at 10 am for the Reopening Celebration, a Community Market from 11 am to 4 pm and Bulls and Broncs event at the rodeo grounds at 7 pm.

The parade has a large number of entries already, including at least six Shrine units—the Moosomin Shrine Go-Kart Patrol, the Moose Jaw Oriental Band, the Brandon Mini-Mustangs, the Southeast Shrine Club Three Wheelers and the Indian Head Steel Drum Band and the Regina Shrine Drum Band from Regina—will all be attending the Moosomin parade.

The theme of the parade is Celebrate Reopening/Goodbye to Covid.

Most years one individual is selected as honorary parade marshal. This year the parade is dedicated to everyone who got us through the pandemic—doctors, nurses, pharmacists who provided vaccinations, front-line workers.

Parade entries can be emailed to kevin@world-spectator.com

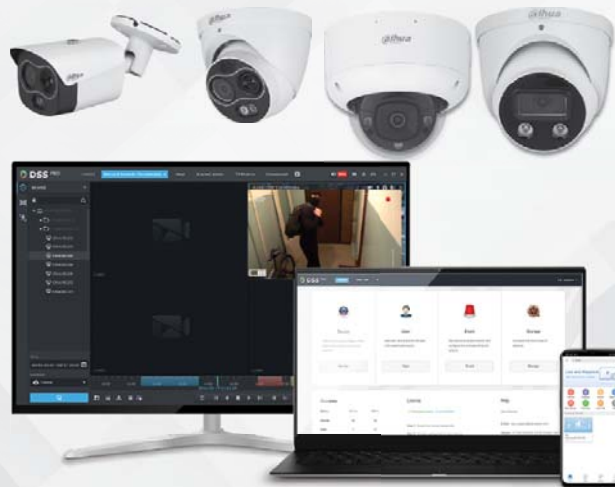

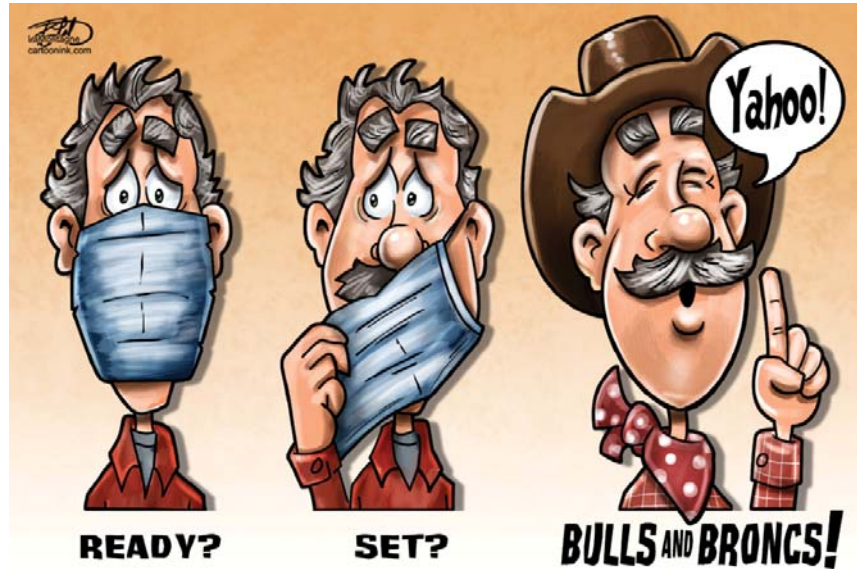

The Bulls and Broncs event July 17 will include bareback, saddle bronc and bull riding events—some of the most popular rodeo events.

The Rodeo Committee decided to hold an event this year featuring the most popular rodeo events, and plan a full rodeo for 2022.

There will be a beer garden held at the rodeo site Saturday night July 17 as well.

This weekend will also be the 19th annual Mini British Open Charity Golf Tournament at the Pipestone Hills Golf Club, a maskless celebration at the golf club with 162 golfers signed up.

At right, a scene from a previous Moosomin Rodeo weekend. This year's Bulls and Broncs event is coming up this Saturday, July 17 at 7 pm. It was moved to July 17 to take advantage of Saskatchewan's lifting of all Covid restrictions.
